Good Gains Shown In Collection of Taxes In Victoria

Percentage of Current Levy Collected Last Year Highest Since 1933

Greater Increase In Arrears Class

A gratifying increase in the collection of taxes, both current and arrears, in Victoria last year was announced today by D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller-treasurer. In the current division the percentage collection was the highest since 1933.

Last year the city set its current levy at $1,799,715.46 and collected 78.32 per cent, or $1,409,620.49. In 1935 the levy was $1,690,048.45 and collections $1,296,514.86 or 76.71 per cent.

The increase in collections on the higher levy was considered all the more unusual in view of the fact that last year the tax rate was raised four mills and the taxable assessment of improvements was boosted by 5 per cent.

ARREARS GAINS HIGHER

In the arrears section the increases were even more unusual. At January 1, 1935, the city had a total outstanding account on one-year arrears of $389,009 of which $121,902.65 was collected that year. At the beginning of 1936 the amount outstanding in one-year arrears was $347,627.58, a total below that of the preceding year, but collections were $128,281.40, a figure well above that of 1935.

Still further gains on smaller accounts were reported in the two-year arrears. Outstanding at January 1, 1935, was $322,646.12. During that year $158,871.61 was collected. At the beginning of last year the aggregate outstanding two-year accounts stood at $292,064.03, of which $187,655.51 was collected by the end of December.

Collections for both current and arrears last year amounted to $1,725,557.40, which still left an unfavorable difference between that figure and the levy for 1936.

EXPECT SUBSTANTIAL DEFICIT

In spite of the exceptional collections, however, the city will face a substantial deficit when the income and disbursement for 1936 is computed. Among other things, the city has to face a total of $100,000 which it anticipated as a loan from the provincial government and included in its budget. That loan was not forthcoming.

The gratifying collections for the year were seen in some quarters as a reflection of returning prosperity. The collections were also regarded to have increased because property holders have been weeding out their less desirable holdings and have let them go to tax sale, retaining only those of value.

Schools Closed At Royal City

Canadian Press

New Westminster, Feb. 11.—The New Westminster school board at noon today ordered all schools in the city closed because of slush on city streets. About 3,500 children were affected.

Milder temperatures yesterday and last night, accompanied by rain and wet snow, left the streets covered with water and slushy snow.

MAN FREED IN MATTSON HUNT

G-men at Seattle End Questioning of H. A. Post, Clearing Him

Associated Press

Seattle, Feb. 11.—Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and state patrol officers announced today they had dropped questioning and further investigation of H. A. Post, thirty-two, ex-convict and seaman, held here in connection with the kidnap-murder of Charles Mattson, ten.

F.B.I. agents and state policemen said they were satisfied Post had nothing to do with the case. City police, however, said they would continue to hold Post on an open charge pending investigation of his record and several robberies in the U.S. Pacific northwest.

Post was one of about fifty persons who have been held at one time or another over the country for investigation in connection with the kidnapping of the Mattson boy December 27.

Post, also known as James G. McDonald, a former convict in the San Quentin, Calif., prison, yesterday denied all knowledge of the kidnapping of December 27.

He was arrested last Tuesday.

SEARCH FOR WOMAN

Whether state police found a red-headed woman they were seeking in connection with the interrogation of Post could not be learned. Chief William Cole of the police said yesterday the woman had been Post's companion.

A grand larceny warrant was on file in Tacoma against Post, for whom a pick-up order was issued February 5.

State police said Post registered as "Tim Donovan" at a hotel where he was arrested Tuesday, and pointed out "Tim" was the signature used on the $28,000 ransom note left in the Mattson home.

Senators Line Up In Roosevelt Court Battle

Army Machine Dives Out of Snowstorm on Street Car, Killing Five Fliers and Conductor; Burning Gasoline Injures Several; Scenes of Panic

Associated Press

Berlin, Feb. 11.—A German military plane dived out of a blinding snowstorm into a busy Berlin market place today, spraying the teeming square with burning gasoline, killing six persons and creating scenes of the wildest panic.

The plane caromed off a street car. An automobile on the street caught fire and burned.

It ripped through trolley wires like a giant cleaver and struck with a sickening crash directly in front of a moveable cage containing fifteen lions, part of a small traveling circus.

The terrified roars of the lions, struggling to escape from the menace of fire that burst out through the screen of snowflakes before them, rose above the screams of street car passengers and the cries of pedestrians.

FLIERS LOSE LIVES

All five air force members in the plane were killed. The conductor of a street car died of burns from a live wire and another trolley worker was injured. Several others were burned.

The tri-motored Junkers plane apparently was trying for an emergency landing in nearby Schiller Park.

The Air Ministry said the machine was a military reconnaisance plane en route from Stargard, Pomerania, to Jueterbog.

Observers saw flames bursting from the plane when it crashed.

The plane was an old-type Junkers.

SOCIAL CREDIT M.P.'S ARGUING

Caucus at Ottawa; P. J. Rowe Scores Aberhart in Alberta For His Delay

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—The caucus of the Social Credit members of the House of Commons adjourned without taking any action against one of their number, P. J. Rowe, who represents Athabasca, Alberta, following expressions of disatisfaction by Mr. Rowe with the progress being made by Premier Aberhart in Alberta.

A statement was issued by Mr. Rowe immediately following the caucus in which he detailed his criticisms of the Aberhart Government and challenged J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit leader in the Commons, to define the steps which have been taken so far to institute Social Credit.

Mr. Blackmore issued a statement in reply.

NO STEP OBSERVED

"I do not know of a single step for the effective inauguration of Social Credit since the advent of the present administration," Mr. Rowe declared.

"The people of Alberta have voted for a change in their economic system and their elected representatives are committed to the full and complete implementation of a Social Credit system.

"It is my definite and considered opinion that the economic conditions in Alberta today are worse than at

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—The House of the Washington State Legislature went on record by a vote of 79 to 10 today endorsing the proposal of President Roosevelt to reorganize the United States Supreme Court.

NO COMPROMISE

Washington, Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—New White House conferences prompted administration sources today to forecast a no-compromise battle by President Roosevelt in behalf of his court reorganization plan which includes authority to increase the U.S. Supreme Court membership from nine to a maximum of fifteen justices.

Two more talks across Mr. Roosevelt's desk were added to the usual series of conferences over the controversial court plan which began last Friday. Those attending said the meetings had permitted the President to amplify his views.

Senators fighting the proposed Supreme Court change claimed that since Friday "sure" opposition votes have mounted to thirty-two and that a score of others were possible. About thirty have declared in favor of the reorganization.

Administration officials close to the President were emphatic in telling reporters there was no talk of compromise at the White House.

Debt Plan Must Go to House

The Fortin debt adjustment plan for Victoria cannot go into operation until it has the approval of the Legislature, inquiries at the Legislative Buildings today indicated.

Government assurance that validation of the measure will be supported depends upon the council endorsing the scheme and the bondholders' representative giving an undertaking to secure consent of 51 per cent, it was stated.

If these actions are taken the city can apply to the government for a promise of validation and for the authority to pass up its sinking fund payments for the current year.

FACTORIES BILL

London, Feb. 11 (Canadian Press Cable).—Sir John Simon, Home Secretary, moved second reading of the government's new factories bill in the House of Commons late today.

Ministers Are Freed of Charges

Canadian Press

Perth, Western Australia, Feb. 11.—Ministers and former ministers of the western Australia state government were exonerated today in the report of the royal commission appointed to investigate charges of corruption made by independent members of the Legislature.

Premier J. C. Willcock and former Premier Philip Collier were among those acquitted. The charges were of corruption in the granting of mining reservations and of tampering with the administration of justice.

Loyalists Claim Madrid Gains

Fascists Lose West Park; On South Coast Insurgents Advance

Associated Press

Madrid, Feb. 11 (By Wireless at 12.20 p.m. today, Madrid time)—Socialist troops drove Fascist besiegers from "last line" positions in Madrid's west park, the military defence council announced today.

The entire sector south of University City is "now dominated by the government," the announcement said.

A small building in front of the clinical hospital, centre of Socialist and insurgent attacks for weeks, was also taken in the day's fighting, the defence junta said.

ON SOUTH COAST

Government commanders also asserted militiamen on the southern Mediterranean front had checked a Fascist advance on Motril, near Salobrena, a coastal point about forty-eight miles east of insurgent-dominated Malaga.

(Fascist headquarters at Algeciras, however, declared their columns had occupied Motril and maintained an advance eastward on the seaboard highway to Almeria.)

PLANES SHOT DOWN

Official reports said government fighting planes shot down four insurgent pursuit planes which accompanied a bomber, in addition to one Fascist tri-motored ship in the Malaga sector.

The battle in besieged Madrid began early today with a dawn attack by the government defenders.

A continuous roar of cannon and the crackling of rifle and machine gun fire could be heard throughout the city from the whole length of the siege line.

Many patients were officially reported killed in a Red Cross hospital at Alcala de Henares, as Fascist bombers renewed raids in the capital section.

PEACE COMES AGAIN ON U.S. AUTO FRONT

Settlement of Strike at Centres in Large Group of States Welcomed on All Sides; No Delay in Evacuation of Plants by Sit-down Strikers; Five-cents-an-hour Wage Increase Adds $25,000,000 a Year to Pay Roll

Associated Press

Detroit, Feb. 11.—The costliest strike in United States automotive history ended formally today with the signing here at 11.46 a.m., E.S.T., of a peace agreement between the General Motors Corporation and the United Automobile Workers' Union.

The signing was done as the strike, estimated to have cost $1,000,000 a day in wages alone to General Motors employees, entered its forty-fourth day.

Shortly before the agreement was signed, General Motors announced a five-cent hourly wage increase for all employees effective February 15, estimated to aggregate approximately $25,000,000 a year.

TERMS OUTLINED

Under the terms of the agreement:

1—The corporation recognizes the union as the collective bargaining agency for those employees belonging to the union.

2—The corporation and the union agree to commence collective bargaining negotiations on February 16 with regard to the issues set forth in the letter of January 4 of the union to the corporation.

EVACUATION OF PLANTS

3—The union agrees to end the present strike and evacuate all plants now occupied by strikers.

4—The corporation promises to resume operations in all strike-bound or idle plants "as rapidly as possible."

5—All employees are to return to work and without discrimination against strikers.

6—The union agrees that, pending negotiations, there will be no other strikes or interference with production.

7—During existence of the collective bargaining agreement contemplated all opportunities to negotiate shall be exhausted before any other strike or production interference is attempted by the union.

8—After evacuation of plants the corporation agrees to discuss the injunction proceedings started by the corporation against the union or any members in Flint, Mich.

NO OTHER BARGAINING

In a letter to Governor Murphy of Michigan this morning, William S. Knudsen, executive vice-president of the General Motors Corporation, agreed not to negotiate with any employee representation group in twenty strike-affected plants other than the United Automobile Workers for six months without first consulting the Governor.

The letter said:

"We agree with you that within a period of six months from the resumption of work we will not bargain with or enter into plants on strike in respect of such matters as general corporate policy as referred to in letter of January 4, without first submitting to you the facts of the situation, and gaining from you the sanction of any such contemplated procedure as being justified by law, equity and justice toward the group of employees so represented."

SIGNED IN COURT ROOM

The General Motors conferees during eight days of negotiations that ended in agreement early today, and two of the three labor representatives signed the peace treaty in a crowded court room at 11.46 a.m.

Reich Envoy In London Talks

Canadian Press From Havas

London, Feb. 11.—Joachim von Ribbentrop, German ambassador, arrived at the Foreign Office at 4 p.m. today for his much-heralded interview with Viscount Halifax, Acting Foreign Secretary.

He gave the Nazi salute to a group of photographers at the door and was immediately conducted into the room where Lord Halifax awaited him.

British Defence Loan $2,000,000,000

Chancellor of Exchequer Tells Commons of Plan to Raise Great Fund

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—Great Britain plans to float a defence loan up to a sum not exceeding £400,000,000 ($2,000,000,000), Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons today.

He said a bill would be introduced by the government to give it the general power to borrow money or to use realized surpluses for defence expenditures.

The Chancellor made his disclosure in reply to a question from Rt. Hon. Clement Attlee, leader of the opposition.

He said the loan would be spread over a period of not more than five years and that the debt would be redeemed within thirty years. Under the plan, Parliament would annually vote an appropriation to pay the interest.

Mr. Chamberlain said Britain's defence expenditures—she is in the midst of a vast defensive scheme of rearmament in every phase—were increasing apace, and that present government revenues would not meet them.

FROM BRITISH SOURCES

Although Mr. Chamberlain did not say where the money would be sought, it was expected by informed sources to be raised here.

FINE PAID BY HON. A. BUCHAN

Son of Governor-General and Fellow Student in "Lark" in Windsor, Eng.

Canadian Press

Windsor, Eng., Feb. 11.—Hon. Alastair Buchan, younger son of the Governor-General of Canada, Lord Tweedsmuir, and Alastair Campbell, both eighteen, pleaded guilty in the Windsor police court today to stealing and damaging two hurricane lamps belonging to the Windsor Corporation.

A constable testified he had seen the accused standing in the centre of Windsor High Street in evening dress, the lamps in their hands, pretending to direct traffic. They smashed the lamps against the railings of a club, the constable said, and took to their heels when they saw him approach.

CAUGHT BY POLICEMAN

The constable caught them after a run. They had been drinking, he said, but were not drunk.

The chief constable of Windsor testified both were old Etonians and Oxford undergraduates and had no intention of stealing the lamps. He therefore withdrew the theft charge. On the remaining charge each was fined $5 and assessed the costs of the damage. The lamps were valued at $2.25.

Simpson Case Counsel Named

Sir P. Hastings to Defend Mrs. Sutherland in London Slander Suit

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—Sir Patrick Hastings, K.C., has been named, it was learned today, to defend Mrs. Joan Sutherland in Ernest A. Simpson's suit against her, charging slander growing out of gossip about the Simpson divorce case.

Briefing of the noted counsel—one of the "big three" of the English bar—led legal circles to anticipate the suit would be brought to trial.

The action is based on remarks which Simpson contends Mrs. Sutherland made at a luncheon party. Friends said Simpson brought the suit in an attempt to stifle gossip about the divorce which has circulated since Mrs. Simpson was granted her degree nisi last October.

VICTORY OVER FLOODS IS SEEN

As Mid-Mississippi Sector Relieved, Lower Area Confident of Protection

Associated Press

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 11.—Dwellers along the mid-Mississippi hailed victory over the flood today while the lower valley waited confidently for crests now rolling into the sector.

United States army engineers maintained a sharp watch on levees from Memphis down, but the joy of women and children returning to unharmed homes in Cario, Ill., set the tone for a feeling of relief all along the river.

The Mississippi began a slow recession here after standing for two days at a record peak of 48.67 feet and the danger zone shifted southward, where the pick and shovel brigade continued to man the levees.

The Mississippi passed a stage of fifty-five feet at Natchez, Miss., and coastguard cutters began evacuating residents and their livestock in the lowlands outside levees in Mississippi and Louisiana.

POPE HOPES WAR ENDING

Vatican City, Feb. 11.—Pope Pius rejoiced today at official news of the occupation of Malaga by Spanish insurgents, according to a semi-official statement.

The Pontiff was reported to have expressed great interest in the advance of General Francisco Franco's troops, believing this would shorten the period of bloodshed in the civil war.

South Africans Add Defences

Census Being Taken of Nation's War Material Resources

Canadian Press

Capetown, Feb. 11.—South Africa, declaring the best insurance for peace is preparedness for war, today started a census of the nation's war materials.

The government announced formation of a war supplies board whose duty it will be to discover manufacturing possibilities within the country during war or peace and also plan in consultation with the army general staff how mobilization can best be conducted in time of war to avoid paralysis of the civil population.

The government has signed an agreement with Imperial Chemical Industries for the erection of a munitions factory at Pretoria, which will be required to produce 10,000,000 rounds of machine-gun ammunition annually.

Mayor Andrew McGavin and members of the City Council are expected to attend, as well as Mayor George Miller of Vancouver.

Saskatchewan to Recast Finances

Debt Refunding and New Relations With Dominion Forecast in Throne Speech Opening Legislature's Session

Canadian Press

Regina, Feb. 11.—Indications that Saskatchewan's fiscal policy is due for an overhauling were contained in the Speech from the Throne delivered at the opening of the 1937 session of the Provincial Legislature this afternoon by Hon. A. P. McNab, Lieutenant-Governor.

The speech dealt with provincial finances in the following manner:

"The subject of provincial finance, including the possibility of refunding the public debt, the readjustment of the financial relationship between the Dominion and the province, and the imposition of new taxes will be fully outlined and dealt with in the budget."

SCHOOL GRANTS

The speech definitely committed the government to increase school grants, and suggested the possibility of arrangements being entered into with the federal government for collection of incomes taxes as a means of reducing administrative costs.

Legislation will be submitted to provide for the repeal of the public revenue tax and the substitution therefor of an educational tax which, with the income of the school lands fund, will be specially earmarked for educational purposes.

Rail Wage Vote to Be Known March 18

Majority Declaration of Workers in Canada to Be Announced Then; Ballot Question Strike Proposal

Canadian Press

Montreal, Feb. 11.—Result of the votes of 117,000 railway union members in Canada for or against a strike will be made known at a meeting March 18 of the egneral conference committee of the running trades unions, it was learned here today.

Delay in completing balloting is said to be due to the varying procedures in the seventeen unions involved. Each union has a separate constitution and a strike decision might involve some unions while members of others would continue to work.

FOR ECONOMY

Howard B. Chase, spokesman for the committee, who has forecast a 98 per cent vote in favor of a strike, said today the attitude of the men was unanimous and unchanged. Pay cuts totalling more than $90,000,000 had been accepted in the past few years, he said, in the interests of "rigid railway economy enforced by the Bennett government."

"We consider that a generous contribution, but now it is time it came to an end," he said.

TWO PROPOSALS

The majority report of the Maclean conciliation board, issued recently and rejected by the men's leaders, proposed periodic restorations of pay to reduce the 19 per cent cut to 7 per cent by November 1. The minority report of Fred Bancroft proposed complete restoration by November 1.

CAPTURE CLAIMED

Associated Press

Algeciras, Spain, Feb. 11—Insurgents announced today the capture, without resistance, of Motril, a large coastal town approximately sixty miles east of Malaga.

The troops of General Francisco Franco marched through Motril, the insurgent announcement said, and advanced four miles past the town on the seaboard highway to Almeria, seventy miles from Motril.

Fascist field commanders predicted the main column of insurgent troops would reach Almeria Saturday.

MANY ON TRIAL

Associated Press

Gibraltar, Feb. 11.—More than 2,000 Socialist prisoners are awaiting trial by Fascist tribunals at Malaga, J. G. Clissold, British consul at the southern Spanish port, said today on his arrival here.

Three special tribunals are sitting in continuous session hearing a variety of charges against government sympathizers, he declared.

Mr. Clissold asserted none of the prisoners had been executed yet.

He came to Gibraltar aboard the British destroyer Basilisk.

FRANCE WATCHING

Paris, Feb. 11. — France renewed her threats today to intervene in the Spanish civil war in behalf of the faltering Republican government unless Germany and Italy halt their aid to the insurgent Fascists.

Reports of recent landings of 12,000 Italian troops at Cadiz and foreign support in the Fascist capture of Malaga on the south coast stimulated evident impatience in government quarters over delay of the international Non-intervention Committee to isolate the civil conflict.

Socialist Deputy Joseph Rous declared he would raise the point in the Chamber of Deputies today and ask the government what were the real prospects for halting all foreign aid from either side in the more than seven-months-old peninsula conflict.

A general meeting of the Council of Ministers—presumably to deal with the new situation, was called for Saturday morning.

PRESS WARNING

Premier Leon Blum's newspaper Le Populaire issued a frank warning to Germany and Italy that French popular opinion might force the government to take a hand on the side of the Socialist government.

"There is no doubt," the paper declared, "that if Italy and the Reich do not ease their sabotage immediately and if international control is not established an irresistible movement of Democratic opinion in this country will oblige the government to review its decision and resume liberty of action with regard to Spain."

NAVAL PATROL

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11. — Germany and Italy consented today to inclusion of Russian warships in a European naval patrol which is planned to keep foreign arms and volunteers out of Spain.

That removed one of the causes of the delay in putting a general neutrality agreement into effect. Portugal, however, still was standing on her refusal to have neutral observers on her territory to check the flow of foreign aid to the Spanish combatants.

Official British sources said there was no doubt that a large number of Italians had landed in Spain.

Canadian Press

London, Feb. 11.—Amid ministerial cheers, Viscount Cranborne, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told opposition critics in the House of Commons today the Spanish Non-intervention Committee had saved Europe from being plunged into war.

Replying to the request of Rt. Hon. Clement Attlee, Labor leader, for a statement on the action the committee proposed taking, Viscount Cranborne pointed out that certain difficulties had developed. He said a subcommittee consisting of representatives of the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Italy, Portugal and Russia had been appointed to consider an effective system. This committee would meet tomorrow.

CONVICTION RECORDED

Seattle, Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—After deliberating nine hours, a federal court jury convicted Sam Peterson, forty-five-year-old logger of Vancouver, B.C., and Bellingham today on two counts of smuggling an alien into the United States from Canada. Peterson had pleaded innocent.

Manufacturers Are Criticized

At Textile Inquiry Counsel McRuer Scores Country-wide Association

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Parliament had given to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association the most extraordinary powers ever given to any organization, Commission Counsel J. C. McRuer, K.C., told Mr. Justice W. F. A. Turgeon at continuation of the textile inquiry here today.

One of them was the power instituting inquiries and examining witnesses under oath on "any matter affecting the manufacturing, import or export interest of Canada," he said.

The association believed in protection and was insistent on it, but it was entirely lacking in any policy with respect to labor, said counsel, except a purely negative one. It had opposed the Industrial Standards Act, but had no suggestion for replacing it.

The inquiry commission had been told organized labor and collective bargaining did not come within the scope of the association's activities.

The association represented industrial groups enjoying the private right of taxation through the tariff, he said. It must be clear that when the Canadian Manufacturers' Association having no labor policy, claimed high protection for the benefit of the workman, it did so insincerely.

The organization had a definite policy with regard to collecting this "subsidy" from the consumer, but none respecting distribution of the moneys so collected among the workers.

Soviet General Accuses Japan

Early War Was Planned at Tokio, Says V. Bluecher in Eastern Siberia

Canadian Press

Moscow, Feb. 11.—Gen. Vassily Bluecher, commander of the Soviet Far Eastern army, charged today that official Japanese documents showed Japan planned an early war with the Soviet Union to seize Soviet territory.

His charges were telegraphed to the government newspaper Izvestia from the eastern army headquarters at Khabarovsk in commemoration of the fifteenth anniversary of the Battle of Volochaievka and the defeat of "Japanese "interventionists."

Gen. Bluecher cited what he said was the reference book of Koki Hirota, former Japanese Premier, to prove his contention that Japan's conquest of Manchuria was a strategic preparation for war with the Soviet Union. He added:

"We also are aware of some quotations from Japanese official documents is that a Japanese-Soviet war should be carried out as soon as possible.

"Its purpose would be not only to protect Japan from Communism but in a larger sense to make possible the occupation of Far Eastern Siberia."

CATALANS MOBILIZE

Barcelona, Feb. 11 (Canadian Press from Havas).—Mobilization of all Catalans who reached military age in 1934 and 1935 was ordered in a decree issued here yesterday evening as the government of the Spanish province of Catalonia prepared to meet a threatened insurgent invasion.

Barcelona was shelled yesterday by an insurgent warship for the second time within twenty-four hours. It aroused grave concern that the long-predicted land, air and sea attack on Catalonia by General Francisco Franco's forces was imminent.

Canadian Bond Sale Approved

Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 11.—Senator Ellender, Democrat, Louisiana, said today the Securities Exchange Commission had informed him that sale of an $85,000,000 Canadian Government bond issue in the United States did not violate the Johnson Act forbidding defaulting debtor nations to float loans here.

Ellender recently called attention to the sale of the Canadian bonds in a speech in the United States Senate, and said he considered it in violation of the act.

FOUR VICTIMS WERE DROWNED

Alive After Plane Crashed Into San Francisco Bay; Seven Bodies Missing

Associated Press

San Francisco, Feb. 11.—At least four of the eleven victims were alive after the Los Angeles-San Francisco plane crashed into the Bay, but drowned before rescuers could arrive, an autopsy revealed today.

Search for the seven missing bodies was conducted while investigations were launched to determine what caused the big airliner to crash near Mills Field Tuesday night.

CLOTHES MISSING

Dr. J. N. Dallal and Coroner William Crosby agreed the four victims had drowned and and missing clothes of one passenger, Mark Fontana, millionaire San Francisco food manufacturer, indicated he had fought his way free from the wreckage and attempted to swim ashore.

"Fontana definitely was drowned," said Dr. Dallal. "He had only superficial facial lacerations and those probably were made by a grappling hook."

The body of Fontana, found near the wreckage, was without the coat and trousers, and a shoe was untied and the necktie askew, indicating he had got out of the plane.

Coroner Crosby and Dr. Dallal likewise agreed that Pilot A. R. "Tommy" Thompson, veteran flier, co-pilot Joe de Cesaro and stewardess Ruth Kimmel also drowned.

TWO THEORIES OFFERED

Four groups of investigators sought today to learn from the torn and twisted wreckage why the giant airliner, only seconds away from its destination, plunged into the Bay. Experienced pilots unofficially advanced two possible theories.

They said Pilto Thompson may have banked too sharply when he circled out over the Bay to come in again, thus causing the right wing to buckle and catapult the plane into the water.

Other aviators considered more probable the theory that Thompson, misjudged his altitude in the darkness, banked too sharply, and the right wing struck the water.

Officials of United Airlines, operators of the ship, the Douglas Aircraft Co., its builders; the U.S. Department of Commerce and the San Mateo County coroner's office did not comment on the theories.

GAS WASTAGE INVESTIGATED

Alberta Government Moves in Turner Valley; Many Seek Oil Leases

Canadian Press

Edmonton, Feb. 11.—The Alberta Government will investigate the wastage of gas in the Turner Valley oil field to determine the necessity of conservation regulations, it was announced today by Hon. N. E. Tanner, Minister of Mines. A system of gas quotas based on production figures may be the result.

At the same time, it was learned the Mine Department has been flooded in recent weeks with applications for oil leases. Departmental officials said the average daily number of applications for prospecting licenses was forty, with the aggregate acreage running into the hundreds of thousands. One application alone was for 140,000 acres.

In recent months the Turner Valley field has become one of Canada's biggest oil producers. There are seventy-six producing wells, including one of 2,000 barrels daily.

SLUSH TODAY AT VANCOUVER

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11. — Vancouverites who shivered for forty-three days while their city was in the grip of one of the longest cold spells in its fifty years' history, decided today the weather was returning to normal, despite the fact nearly an inch of slushy snow accompanied last night's heavy rain.

The slush soon washed away in the downtown business section, but suburban districts still had traces of water-soaked snow today.

Fraser Valley points reported four feet of snow on the level today, with many deeper drifts. Heavy rain was falling at Agassiz, on the north side of the Fraser River, sixty miles east of Vancouver, but the temperature remained near freezing and Department of Public Works officials said no signs of flood conditions had appeared.

Should a fast thaw occur, however, there would be danger of floods in the valley, officials said.

LEEMING BACKS FORTIN SCHEME

Sees Proposals as Parallel to Those He Sponsored Last Year

Ex-Mayor David Leeming, who last year served as a member of the delegation seeking debt charge readjustment for the city, yesterday expressed the opinion the Fortin plan would afford the city as much relief as bondholders would give.

"It is not exactly the same plan as that submitted by Charles S. Henley, city fiscal agent, but it nevertheless gives the city practically the same amount of relief suggested by Mr. Henley as obtainable. The Fortin scheme was arrived at in a different way," the former mayor stated.

"The Henley plan offered for three years' relief of over $700,000, so also the Fortin scheme, provided the city takes advantage of the option not to make payments into the sinking fund for the first three years.

"Mr. Henley's plan offered a saving, as compared with 1937 for the balance of the term, of over $500,000 per year. So does the scheme offered by Mr. Fortin.

SIMILAR RELIEF

A comparison of figures for the first three years, and subsequent years, shows very little difference from those suggested by Mr. Henley. As I pointed out, when offering the plan to the City Council, the Henley proposals were not so much concerned with reduction of interest as they were with debt readjustment that would put the city on a solvent basis and preserve credit.

"I was accused of a desire to repudiate the city's debt, but the plan first proposed, and the one now offered, have no suggestion of repudiation. Both are based upon the city meeting obligations to the best of its ability, and with a desire that we should preserve our solvency and credit.

"My comment is that the Fortin plan accomplishes this, and that our creditors have gone, in their offer, as far as a creditor can be expected to go in adjusting our problem. Surely we cannot expect that our creditors will give anything they do not have to yield. Our creditors are as interested in preserving our solvency and credit as we are.

"The alternative to not accepting a readjustment of our debt is one that all Victorians who value their credit would reject, as it is not conceivable that we should go into default and subsequent receivership when such an alternative is avoidable. We have demonstrated our ability to meet obligations if given a fair chance.

"I give my personal support to Mayor Andrew McGavin and the City Council in the adoption of the Fortin plan, and believe that with economic administration and the reduction of certain social service costs we shall be able to bring our mill rate into a more reasonable figure."

Agreement Sends 100,000 Back to Work

Then the fact was rushed to the hotel suite, where John L. Lewis, aggressive chieftain of the Committee for Industrial Organization, lay ill with a cold.

Lewis asserted the agreement represents "another milestone on labor's march."

He declared the agreement "establishes for the first time a rational relationship in the automobile industry."

RETURNING 100,000 TO WORK

Resumption of full operations will return approximately 100,000 General Motors employees to work, in addition to raising 35,000 others from a part-time to full-time basis.

Forty plants of the corporation's various divisions have been closed or operated on a restricted basis, completely halting the production of General Motors passenger cars.

Since December 30, "sit-down" strikers have held two Fisher Body plants at Flint—the focal point of the labor dispute—and a week ago union workers in the Chevrolet No. 4 plant also started a "sit-down."

NIGHT OF DISCUSSION

Governor Murphy of Michigan, who called together representatives of both sides a week ago yesterday at the "wish" of President Roosevelt, smilingly announced the settlement at 2.40 a.m. today. The announcement came at the conclusion of the fourteenth joint meeting of delegations for General Motors and the U.A.W.A.

At the conclusion of a night of discussions the Governor called newsmen into his hotel suite and announced to the tense group: "An agreement has been reached."

Although the strike did not attract national interest until it became spectacular through the occupation of the two Flint Fisher plants by the "sit-downers," the union actually began its campaign to win recognition and other concessions from General Motors when it called a strike November 18 in the Fisher plant at Atlanta, Ga.

It was a "sit-down," but the strikers held the factory only a few days. Gradually the strikes spread to other plants of the corporation, finally extending from New Jersey to California and from Georgia to the Great Lakes. At the peak at least 135,000 General Motors employees were out of work.

FLINT WAS CENTRE

Flint, with one-fourth of its 165,000 population employed by General Motors, became the strike "capital." Two serious disorders and several other minor ones occurred there. In the first—January 11—twenty-seven persons were injured, and Governor Murphy dispatched Michigan national guardsmen to the scene.

The second disturbance, in which a dozen were hurt February 1, led to the establishment of a militarized zone around more than a dozen General Motors buildings.

Additional troops were sent to Flint. Although the total reached 3,300, only 1,200 were on patrol duty. The others were held in reserve.

COURT ORDERS OBTAINED

Twice General Motors went into Circuit Court at Flint to obtain injunctions against the occupation of its property by strikers, but in neither case was action to remove them carried out.

On learning in Washington of the strike settlement, Secretary of Labor Frances L. Perkins, said: "It is very gratifying to know that an adjustment has been reached."

President Roosevelt remained in the background, but was kept informed concerning the situation.

SPEEDY EVACUATION

Flint, Mich., Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—Evacuation today of three striker-occupied plants here was advanced as a possibility this afternoon as an aftermath of the peace treaty terminating the General Motors strikes.

Newsboys crying extras announcing settlement of the far-flung strikes awakened "sit-down" strikers in the three occupied plants this morning and relieved explosive tension in this troop-patrolled General Motors "strike capital."

Sleepy-eyed skepticism of the sit-downers quickly gave way to noisy jubilation as the strike committee read newspaper accounts of the settlement over amplifiers to the men who had held Fisher Body Plant No. 1 for forty-two days. Cheers greeted each announcement.

Elsewhere members of the United Automobile Workers of America, which directed the widespread strikes, joyfully received news of the end of the strike this morning, but "business as usual" was the official word pending the actual signing of the peace pact in Detroit.

Pickets continued on duty. Sit-downers maintained their watchful waiting. Michigan national guardsmen armed with machine guns continued to stand near the Fisher Body plant No. 2 and Chevrolet No. 4, the other two occupied factories.

Union officials said a giant demonstration would accompany the evacuation, but they held all definite plans in abeyance.

At Fisher No. 1 plant, pickets and strikers within the plant shouted back and forth, making plans for a celebration after completion of the evacuation.

"I'm sure glad its all over," one picket said, "because the finance company is about ready to take my car."

STOCKS GO UP

New York, Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—A fresh spurt in United States steel shares enlivened the stock market in late trading today after settlement of the General Motors strike had touched off a heavy early buying wave.

In the final few minutes, "big steel" mounted above $109 a share for a gain of more than $3 to a new high in the recovery bull market.

General Motors stayed close to its early top around $70, where it was up more than $2. Trading was brisk, with transfers around 3,000,000 shares.

GAINS IN LONDON

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—A smart upward movement in North American shares on the stock exchange followed word of settlement of the General Motors sit-down strike.

United States Steel was a leader in the advance, rising to the equivalent of $110 a common share against Wednesday's close of $106.25. International Nickel rose a dollar to $66.50. General Motors reached $72.12, an advance of about $4.

British Defence Loan $2,000,000,000

"Neither the total amount which must thus be raised nor the total period over which it must be spread" could be stated, Mr. Chamberlain explained.

"Flexibility and adaption to changing circumstances of the times must be the essence of our programme," he said, recalling he had warned in his budget speech of last April that a defence loan would be necessary.

"The general experience of the last twelve months has in no way relieved the urgency of our heavy task, nor lightened the cost of raising our forces to the proper standard of defensive strength," Mr. Chamberlain continued.

WITHOUT PRECEDENT

Labor members cheered when Mr. Attlee rose and said "We have had a very serious statement—a proposal which is quite unprecedented in a time of peace."

Mr. Attlee asked for an assurance the cabinet would give the House "full opportunity of understanding what the real international position is and what the defence position is "before acting on loan legislation.

Prime Minister Baldwin set next Wednesday for debate on that matter and indicated a white paper might be issued giving the requested information.

STATEMENT URGED

Seattle, Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—A resolution urging The Post-Intelligencer to comply with a Labor Relations Board ruling ordering the reinstatement of Frank M. Lynch, photographer, and Everhardt Armstrong, dramatic critic, was passed last night by the Seattle Central Labor Council. The newspaper has appealed the board's ruling in the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

the time Premier Aberhart took office."

COURSE IN CONFUSION

"Recent events, and admission by the Premier himself, have amply proved that up to the time the planning committee was named, December 18, 1936, the government of Alberta had no plan whatever for the institution of social credit," he said.

"I cannot conceive that the members of the Alberta cabinet were so blind to economic facts as to place credence in their own statements, and I am compelled to believe that if they were not guilty of wilful misrepresentation and mis-statements to the public, then the only alternative is that they hoped some miracle would happen."

He said he would continue to condemn the policies of the present Alberta cabinet until real social credit was adopted by it.

USING STRATEGY

Mr. Blackmore replied with a statement in part as follows:

"Major Douglas has declared that the leader of the social credit government must put social credit into effect by strategy. Mr. Aberhart is fully qualified to lead any government and any people. He is intelligent enough and honest enough to know that he must use strategy."

RULING SOON IN ONTARIO TRIAL

By GUY E. RHOADES
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Eastview, Ont., Feb. 11.—Crown Attorney Raoul Mercier today argued for conviction of Dorothea Palmer on a charge of advertising through a pamphlet birth control information and contraceptives, claiming the twenty-nine-year-old social worker had showed excess in her methods and the public good was not served by her activities.

CALLED "SMOKE SCREEN"

Mr. Mercier claimed the defence "onslaught" on the Roman Catholic Church and Rev. Canon A. H. Whalley of the Anglican Church indicated an attempt to place a "smoke screen" across the issue.

Defence Counsel F. W. Wegenast protested vigorously the defence had no such intention.

Mr. Mercier said, "according to my learned friend, if the Pope did not interfere contraceptives could be sold with every bar of soap."

He agreed the Criminal Code did not forbid use of contraceptives, but forbade their advertisement in order there might be no abuse of them. Mr. Mercier claimed also "this court is not required to decide the public good for the whole world," and further that the law existed to be obeyed until it was repealed or amended.

MAN FAILS IN RESCUE; ENDS LIFE

Associated Press

Carson City, Nev., Feb. 11.—Earl La Near, twenty-two-year-old Leadville, Colo., carpenter whose body was found in Clear Creek canyon yesterday, shot himself to death in order to avoid death by freezing and exposure, a coroner's jury found today.

La Near perished within a mile of the aid he sought for his snowbound wife and baby, Maude, nineteen, and Donna, two, who were rescued by chance from their stranded automobile last Saturday.

The wife and baby spent about nine days in the snow-stranded automobile before they were found by a chance passerby.

They were on their way to Alameda, Cal., when trapped in a blizzard.

Thaw Sets In At Shawnigan

Shawnigan Lake, Feb. 11.—With four feet of snow on the levels and a foot on the road, the thaw set in at Shawnigan Lake today with the prospect of flood conditions if rain falls. The road into Shawnigan from the Malahat has been kept open and motor traffic is moving in there and mail deliveries being maintained.

The lake is rising a little, but there is no immediate fear of serious floods, although the situation is being closely watched. There is still some ice on the lake.

Hospital Has Serious Problem

Vancouver Institution Dangerously Overcrowded, Superintendent Tells Board

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—Dr. A. K. Haywood, superintendent of the Vancouver General Hospital, told the annual meeting of the board of directors of the institution yesterday evening that "present conditions could not conceivably be any worse" and that "one hesitates to predict what the future will bring unless there is an immediate amelioration of these conditions."

"The main building," Dr. Haywood said, "is running 100 per cent and over in capacity; beds are down in the middle of the wards; such departments as X-ray, laboratory, kitchens, etc., have, during the year, almost given up trying to meet the demands made on them."

The hospital superintendent referred to a survey of the hospital made by Dr. W. H. Walsh, international hospital consultant, who recommended extensive additions to the hospital.

BUILDING PROGRAMME

D. N. Hossie, chairman of the board of directors, referring to the "pressing urgency of the situation," said a committee of the board had been planning a building programme and attempting to find a means of financing it.

Mayor G. C. Miller said:

"It seems too bad that the Dominion Government, which, after all, is in the best position to do something, should not see fit to use relief money to hire unemployed mechanics and carpenters in the construction of services which are so greatly needed in Vancouver."

Agreements On Trade Supported

Associated Press

Washington, Feb. 11.—Secretary of State Hull urged a United States committee yesterday to renew the reciprocal trade law for three years as a means of promoting international peace.

"There is not the slightest doubt," Mr. Hull wrote the Senate finance committee, "that our abandonment of the trade agreements programme at this juncture would mean a resumption of international economic warfare which is now showing such marked signs of abatement. Renewed economic warfare would inevitably mean an intensification of the present-day political tension, which is already pushing many nations in the direction of military conflict."

The House of Representatives on Tuesday passed a measure to renew the law.

Experience of Department of National Defence Men Told in Commons

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—A questionnaire by J. P. Pouliot, Liberal, Temiscouata, Quebec, as to the actual war experience and place of birth of members of the staff of the Department of National Defence was answered in a return tabled in the House of Commons yesterday by Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State.

Mr. Pouliot divided his classifications into those thirty-seven years and over, who served in an actual theatre of war, twenty miles behind the lines, who who served in England or in Canada.

He learned there are 95 officers and 215 other ranks in the department thirty-seven years of age or older, and 34 officers and 377 men younger than thirty-seven. Then, dealing with those thirty-seven and over, he found there were 68 officers and 119 men who had served in the line in an actual theatre of war; 4 officers and 9 men who had been stationed farther than twenty miles behind the fighting line; 9 officers and 18 men who had been stationed in England; 14 officers and 69 men who did not leave Canada on active service overseas.

Of the total departmental staff, 92 officers and 345 men were born in Canada, 37 officers and 246 men were born outside Canada.

"I think I am a good feminist," she said before boarding the Montreal-bound train here last night. "My friends say I'm not. My position is that women should have the same opportunities as men."

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Immediate restoration of all government salaries to normal levels was urged by delegates of the Amalgamated Civil Servants of Canada, who waited on Hon. C. A. Dunning, Finance Minister, and Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State, yesterday.

Mr. Dunning promised consideration of this and other requests made by the delegation, which included the establishment of a minimum salary of $100 a month for all adult male civil servants, that long-term temporaries be made permanent, and that the order-in-council limitation of permanent staff in any branch to 80 per cent of the total personnel be repealed.

Treaty-making Powers Studied

Texts of Privy Council Judgments Tabled in Commons at Ottawa

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11. — Copies of the six complete judgments of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on the Bennett socialization were tabled in the House of Commons yesterday by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Justice Minister.

The full texts bore out the cabled summaries which were reported at the time the judgments were handed down in London. They did, however, contain much detail which had not previously been published and included some views and opinions, incidental to the main decisions; which were a considerable surprise to the Department of Justice.

The interpretation of section 132 of the British North America Act for instance, in the judgment on the three conditions-of-work acts, was thought here to be "very literal" in holding that section had only to do with the performance of treaty obligations and nothing to do with who makes the treaties.

In this interpretation, a treaty within the meaning of the section would apparently have to be negotiated between the "Empire" as a whole and the other country. This would leave the Migratory Birds Protection Act, between the United States and Canada, with the King as a party, not a treaty within the meaning of section 132, Justice Department officials suggested.

DISTINGUISH BETWEEN POWERS

This judgment states that it "is unnecessary, therefore, to dwell upon the distinction between legislative powers given to the Dominion to perform obligations imposed upon Canada as part of the Empire by an imperial executive responsible to and controlled by the Imperial Parliament, and the legislative power of the Dominion to perform obligations created by the Dominion executive responsible to and controlled by the Dominion Parliament." It states, further, that "it is impossible to strain the section so as to cover the uncontemplated event."

INSURANCE MEASURE

In the judgment on the Unemployment and Social Insurance Act, the Judicial Committee holds that act comes under Sub-section 13 of section 92, which deals with property and civil rights in the province, whereas it was thought here it might have been considered under Sub-section 16, covering all matters of local and private nature

Poor Man's Boom

AFTER THE NOVELTY OR THE cream is off the Calgary oil boom and our civic finance experts work out some measure of investment security against unrestrained taxation on property, our western cities will almost certainly follow the lead of other parts of the continent in experiencing a rising real estate market.

Joseph P. Day, the highest real estate authority on this continent, forecasts that this movement, already getting under way in many parts, will differ from previous "booms." In contrast with preceding movements which were profitable mostly for the "Tycoons," as Time would call them, of the realty world, this recovery of values will be more in the nature of a "poor man's boom." The money that is going to be made will be in small homes and moderate priced apartments, he says. The average individual transaction will be much smaller, but the number of transactions will be much larger and, in his opinion, the total volume in dollars will run higher.

Two main reasons support this belief. First, the big housing shortage is in the low-priced home field. In the second place, governments are devoting more of their energies to helping the man of moderate means even if it be to some extent at the expense of wealthy corporations and individuals. They want to bolster the capitalistic system and the private ownership of property. The most effective way of contributing to this is by bringing the small man in as a greater participant in the system's benefits. The "Forgotten Man" is no longer forgotten. He is in the saddle and he is going to be the big real estate buyer during the coming era of real estate activity and rising prices.

Big homes that call for servants are for the most part a thing of the past. A staff of servants is a luxury which few can any longer afford. On the other hand, the little homeowner, who never could afford servants anyway, now has available a whole new staff of electrical servants—refrigerators, stoves, washing machines, vacuum cleaners—to make house work easier.

Another trend that has become noticeable during the depression has been the improvement in the architecture of small homes. The trend toward simple, graceful architecture in moderate priced houses is noteworthy. Houses of this type are actually not only the most satisfying to the eye, but the most economical to build and to maintain. Good architecture costs less than bad architecture.

Hands Over Sea

A NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN IN China, to raise funds for American flood victims, is reported to be under way. The movement is said to have been inspired by American assistance to China in times of flood and famine.

All of which reminds us that while the recent floods in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys may have seemed a terrible disaster to native Americans, they did not really compare with the Chinese variety. Hundreds died, and some 500,000 were rendered homeless, in the American flood catastrophe; in the Kiangsu province flood of 1931 alone, however, the toll in human lives exceeded 450,000, and several millions lost their homes.

Since the loss of life and property could hardly have seemed formidable to the Chinese campaign leaders, their desire to manifest their sympathy seems especially commendable.

Diphtheria vs. Automobiles

WHAT IS THE USE OF PROTECTing a child against diphtheria if he is going to be killed by an automobile? Neither a facetious nor an academic question. It is a challenge to health officers. Saving lives and protecting health is their job. It makes no difference, it was asserted at an eastern Public Health Association meeting, whether life and health are threatened by diphtheria or a speeding automobile, by typhoid fever or an overturned pan of scalding water, by tuberculosis or a rickety stepladder.

The health officer has not only a duty to perform in accident prevention, he has also certain knowledge and skills to bring to the problem. Weapons forged to fight disease can be turned to accident stalking. The man who can fight epidemics can fight accidents. There is an epidemiology of accidents as there is of disease. That is, a methodology has been developed in study of disease prevention which is applicable to accident prevention.

Public health officers have taught a large section of the public to refrain from spitting and to cover coughs and sneezes with a handkerchief, on the appeal that such procedures are good manners and mark the man who is considerate of his neighbor. The same appeal may prove more effective in reducing automobile accidents than drives for safety and against carelessness.

The health officer also has the greatest opportunity and responsibility in the prevention of home accidents. Deaths from this type of accident, at present apparently "nobody's business," nearly equal deaths from motor vehicles. The public health nurse who discovers the unreported case of measles can note the physical hazards of the home and the personal habits that contribute to accidents. When this same nurse is teaching the mother how to feed, clothe and bathe her child, she can at the same time teach the mother how to protect the child from home accidents.

Crises Ahead For Dictators

BELT TIGHTENING HAS BEEN under way for some time, but still harder times are just around the corner for the two countries of Europe swashbuckling under dictators. The Week, London, draws attention to the fact that Italy's 1936 wheat crop was the worst for many years. Her wheat shortage is reckoned by some as high as 3,000,000 tons. There is no need to replace this entire deficit as her margin of economies and starvation is still wide. Rumors of purchase as high as 2,000,000 tons at a cost of $70,000,000 are not warranted, but 1,000,000 tons have certainly been bought for nearly $40,000,000, and ultimate figures should involve them in well over $50,000,000.

The highest estimate of Italy's total foreign reserves in foreign exchange and confiscated mobile assets abroad, plus gold reserves at home, plus gold offered patriotically, was under $150,000,000 at the end of the year and even that was based on the assumption that Italy could obtain market value for the securities deposited abroad. This means that the wheat purchasing programme must reduce the total resources to under $100,000,000, and, as there is a cumulative monthly deficit, the financial state of Italy will be serious by May or June. The lira is nominally 93 to the pound sterling, but the actual market for lira notes has been about 105 and last February fell to 110 and, in small amounts, to 111-112.

Deliveries of wheat have been contracted for in an almost even tempo through the months of February, March and April, and stocking of reserves will be completed by May, when Italian early crops appear.

This is correlated with the fact that Germany is expected definitely to be on bare boards for wheat reserves in March and April. It is estimated that Germany is acquiring 80,000 tons of wheat from Roumania on bloc-mark basis, and is attempting to acquire 200,000 tons of River Plate wheat on barter basis. German shortage will be mostly compensated for in feeders, that is fodder for animals, as these are cheaper. The idea is to have wheat and fodder deficiency compensated for by May on a minimum basis, allowing for a further tightening of belts until the expected better crop, this year. However, purchase of Manitoba wheat is necessary for flour-mixing and this is producing a strain on the Reich's secret banking reserves abroad.

The facts of growing financial exhaustion in Italy and diminishing secret reserves of Germany together with the replenishing of reserves by May, indicate that new economic and probably political crises may be on the horizon for the May-June period.

Manitoba's Beer Tariff

THE TAX OF FIVE CENTS A bottle Manitoba has imposed on outside beer coming into the province has provoked wide discussion. It is feared as a possible beginning of a system of provincial protective tariffs, which, of course, would be destructive of Confederation.

Toronto Saturday Night takes to the suggestion of The Winnipeg Free Press that it is time to think very seriously of repealing that portion of the Dominion Act concerning the traffic in liquor which confers upon the provincial governments the monopoly of liquor importation into their respective provinces and thus creates the power of discrimination which is being so deplorably misused. The section in question declares that no person shall transport into any province from any place in or outside of Canada, any intoxicating liquor except such as has been purchased by the government of that province or its constituted agency. This legislation was adopted at a time when the prohibitionist movement was at its peak and was intended merely to allow every province to go as far in the direction of complete prohibition or rigid government control as it might wish.

It was assumed, as The Free Press notes, that when the provinces engaged in the carrying on of a trade they could be relied upon to respect the intention of the constitution in regard to the free movement of that trade from one province to another. They have failed to justify that assumption; and unless they show signs of mending their ways it is up to the Dominion, if it has any respect for the commercial, and ultimately the political, union of the country, either to insist on their doing so or to withdraw the Dominion-created privilege which enables them to put barriers in the way of inter-provincial movement.

Notes

A campaign is on to ban the car radio as a menace. It seems one cannot hear what the back seat is saying.

"I prefer the happiness of our unorganized imperfection to the gloom of organized perfection in other countries," said Mayor LaGuardia of New York, assailing European dictatorships. That is the way we, too, feel about it.

Pointing to the similarity, in area, of Vancouver Island and Ceylon and noting that the latter supports a population of five and a half millions, the Ottawa Citizen suggests that the Canadian island should support at least half a million. Mr. Twigg might comment that it is already supporting a disproportionate part of the province's seven hundred and fifty thousand.

NO PUNCH

A THOUGHTFUL gentleman has just given me a year's copy of Punch, published in 1851. These old faded issues show you more clearly than all the histories and statistics how far we have come along the road of what we call civilization in these seventy-six years.

You cannot read the old Punch without wondering whether we belong to the same race of people who enjoyed the cartoons and jokes in this publication. To us they seem crude, childish; the kind of thing which would amuse a small boy or girl of ten. Indeed, most of the small boys and girls of ten I know wouldn't be bothered with it. They are too sophisticated. They want something with more verve and, if possible, a little more bloodshed.

Yet apparently our grandfathers could be amused by a simple picture of a gentleman being seasick, or a stout burgher having his hat knocked off by a snowball, or a bunch of the boys getting drunk on rum punch, or a lady trying to give her young a bath in a tin washtub. And they roared at such good, clean fun as this riotous jest which is entitled "A 'Perfect' Joke":

"What is the reason of a blow leaving a blue mark after it?" asked an inquiring young gentleman.

"It's easily accounted for," answered a medical student. "For you know that 'blow' in the perfect tense makes 'blew'."

This was the diet of English society, the glittering wit of the Victorians, the kind of thing that made our grandfathers laugh into their beards and our grandmothers smile wanly within the limitations of their stays.

Here is another profound witticism which must have tickled the boys in their clubs: "Unless you wish to contract bad habits, we should advise you not to purchase your clothes at a cheap tailor's for, as the cloth is invariably bad, and the way of making it up generally too small, the chances are, that with every coat, waistcoast or pair of trousers you purchase, you will be contracting a deplorable bad habit. The only consolation is, that you will have no difficulty in breaking yourself of the habit, for it is sure to break of its own accord."

This simply tickled the eminent Victorians to death, the great intellects which gave us the "Origin of the Species," "In Memoriam," "The Ring and the Book," "Pickwick Papers" and the foundation of our arts and sciences. Yet a modern child would say that it was a very weak pun and not half as clever as some of the recent knock-knocks.

INNOCENTS

YES, OUR ancestors liked that kind of thing because they were innocent of guile (or if not innocent, at least remarkably successful in hushing it up and keeping it confined to the back stairs). This age wants something stronger, with more punch in it, with more spice in it, with more dirt in it. This age wants something stronger, spicier and dirtier every year.

Even ten years ago the humor of such papers as The New Yorker and Esquire, now welcomed in all respectable homes which can afford the price, would have been unthinkable. Now the harassed editors are trying to think up something worse with every issue and finding it hard to do.

All the spice and dirt palls after a time. It is necessary to go deeper and deeper, like the habitual drunkard seeking stronger and stronger stimulant. Where it will end no one can foresee, for we live in a brutal age which is not content to call a spade a spade but must use it to dredge up more odorous material from the depths of the subconscious.

This is all the product of sophistication which is just the slick way of saying disillusionment and secret despair. The disillusionment and despair, the complete confusion of this generation which has lost its anchor, its bearing and its sense of direction, comes, curiously enough, from the very Victorian age which was laughing at Mr. Punch's preposterous horsehair jokes. It was the Victorians who launched modern science into the world, discovered the origin of the species, proved that we are but monkeys, newly-tamed, and launched the notion that the human animal wasn't worth much anyway and that his tiny speck of a world was just a solar accident. From that discovery to the jokes in Esquire is an unbroken and logical chain of development.

STARS

ONE BEGINS to think, on investigating the matter, that the intellects, psychologies and love lives of the movie people must be more complicated than one had suspected, far more complicated than those of ordinary people like you and me. For example, in that remarkable picture-paper Look, which likes to present the more startling aspects of current events, there is an interesting article on Miss Myrna Loy. It says that the genius of Miss Loy (who was born Williams but sacrificed that in the interests of art) has only recently come to life.

The genius of Miss Loy, it seems, did not flame up into its present remarkable heat until she fell in love. This, it is related, was predicted by the late Rudolph Valentino and has occurred precisely as he had anticipated. Love brought Miss Loy her great success. But when Look publishes a two-page colored picture of the lady completely nude in her bathtub, with pretty pink blossoms floating about on the top of the water, you begin to think that photography as well as love has helped Miss Loy along.

Then you take the case of Miss Greta Garbo. Look has gone into that very deeply, from the days when the great tragedian was applying lather to customers' chins in a Stockholm barber shop up to her recent elegant death in "Camille." Now it seems that Miss Garbo isn't the sort of woman you had imagined at all. She is not the mysterious, retiring, lonely soul that you had been led to believe. She is not ethereal and unearthly, as her press agents have asserted. She is just a normal girl who likes beefsteak and rich puddings. But she has to retain that far-away, unearthly look because her press agents have fastened it on her and it's great advertising. Really she is a friendly soul who yearns to talk over the fence to the neighbors, but they just won't let her. This is important, is it not?

Mr. Gable is the most difficult of all. The great authority, Adela Rogers St. Johns, writes in Liberty at length to explain the mysterious personality of Mr. Gable. Why does Mr. Gable stay in Hollywood when he vowed he would leave it after five years? To earn money? Ah, no. It is something else. Indeed, why does Miss St. Johns herself stay in Hollywood? Chiefly "because I'm surer about God." And Mr. Gable says: "I say to you that no man can feel close to millions of people, can have their understanding and love and not respond. I say it's bigger than any individual love that can be given a man. For the next five years I'll be what they want me to be and after that—I don't know."

So now you have the answer to this great question.

POOR URSUS!

To the Editor:—While visiting the park this morning, Ursus the bear was not visible. The weather was mild and this is the first time in years I have not seen him out. Have often wondered why this poor animal has not been given a chance to enjoy life. Why not move him out to the big dry dock at Esquimalt (it's seldom used), fill it with water, stock it with fish, giving a prize weekly for the largest fish caught with rod and line. Ursus, of course, would have to carry port and starboard and headlights and might have to be plimsol marked as he would probably come under the navigation laws or something. Swimming, boat and other kind of races and aquatic sports might easily be held according to the season, a small admittance charge being made. Imagine, Mr. Editor, watching Ursus making a submarine dive with full regalia on a delightful evening such as we have been experiencing lately.

A POLITICAL HONEYPOT

To the Editor:—Health insurance as envisaged by those responsible for its propagation in B.C. is not having an easy course. So much pro and con verbiage has been expended to the point that today it is doubtful if it will be enacted as forecast a month ago.

The commendable action of the Medical Association in demanding that it operate for those mostly in need of it, placing less stress in the returns to themselves, and the threat of resignation of the Health Minister are outcomes of the endeavor to introduce a political honeypot under the guise of social security schemes.

We are only as honest as circumstances demand in ordinary affairs of life, but sometimes complacency will be replaced by an active resistance to insidious attacks on our ideas of progress. Social health insurance has not yet been considered. Let us try and get all organizations and peoples to demand it instead of a special health insurance which is designed to divide the working people and force one section to contribute further to the failing revenues of an outworn system. I have opposed compulsory health insurance since its inception. I see no reasons for changing my ideas.

H. KROEGER.

FORCING GOVERNMENT'S HANDS

To the Editor:—Is the real "kick" from the medical profession an unwieldy attempt to force the hands of government at this time to make medical provision for indigents?

The health commission appointed to operate the Health Insurance Act never promised to include indigents and the contributing public would not tolerate the inclusion of participants of benefits under the act who were not contributing.

While all will commiserate with the indigent in his misfortunes, the act is designed to give service only to those who pay for such service.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"I don't know what system of bookkeeping this bank uses, but it certainly doesn't tally with mine."

NEWSPAPER'S BI-CENTENARY

Established as The Sherborne Mercury in the days when there were so many papers with the title of "Mercury" that they were popularly known as "mercuries" rather than newspapers, The Western Gazette, "the premier weekly newspaper of England," recently celebrated its bicentennial anniversary.

A copy of the paper, an organ for the counties of Somerset, Dorset, Wiltshire and Hampshire, was brought to The Victoria Daily Times by Hugh Creed of Brentwood.

Through a long series of financial and political changes and amalgamations, the paper grew from a four-page sheet, printed by a cumbersome hand-press on hand-made paper, to the newspaper it is today—a sixteen-page weekly, printed at a speed of over 30,000 copies per hour, with a large staff of writers and correspondents, a profit-sharing system, a pension fund which has served as a model to other papers in the country, and a sound tradition of "honesty in news with moderation in views."

The offices moved from Sherborn to Yeovil, the present place of publication, in 1749, when the original Mercury amalgamated with its strongest competitor, The Western Flying Post.

"By means of this union will be rendered the most numerous and extensive paper in Great Britain," the owners wrote at the time of the amalgamation, and the paper still claims a circulation exceeding by several thousands that of any other provincial weekly newspaper in England.

In politics originally uncompromisingly Liberal, The Western Gazette was purchased by Conservative interests in 1886, and has remained Conservative in policy. A minor newspaper war between The Western Gazette and The Western Chronicle, owned by Lord Wolverton, at the end of the nineteenth century, led to the downfall of the latter paper and the strengthening of The Gazette, both in news and advertising.

"The paper's greatest measure of success," an editorial says, "is that it has filled a real need in the southwest over so long a period."—O.M.

THEY RULE CLAN-DESTINELY?

From The Hamilton Spectator

In Scotland's court of heraldry the claim of a girl to chieftainship is being heard. If granted, she will be the first woman to rule a Scottish clan—officially.

THE VAGABOND

Give to me the life I love,
Let the love go by me.
Give the jolly heaven above
And the byway nigh me.
Bed in the bush with stars to see,
Bread I dip in the river—
There's the life for a man like me,
There's the life forever.

Or let autumn fall on me
Where afield I linger,
Silencing the bird on tree,
Biting the blue finger.
White as meal the frosty field—
Warm the fireside haven—
Not to autumn will I yield,
Not to winter even!

Let the blow fall soon or late,
Let what will be o'er me;
Give the face of earth around,
And the road before me.
Wealth I ask not, hope nor love,
Nor a friend to know me;
All I ask, the heaven above
And the road below me.

—Robert Louis Stevenson.

TRUSTEES WILL CONVENE HERE

City School Board Committee Heads Named For Annual Convention

To prepare for the reception of delegates who will attend the annual convention of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association to be held this year in Victoria from September 21 to 23, inclusive, the City School Board yesterday evening appointed three committees.

The entire board will act on all committees with three different chairmen. Trustee W. C. Moresby, K.C., will act as chairman of the entertainment and reception committee, Trustee Percy E. George as chairman of the registration committee and Trustee Charles Bishop as chairman of the transportation committee.

In considering the allocation of funds for the entertainment of the delegates it was suggested $400 should be included in this year's estimates for this purpose. Differences of opinion arose as to whether this would be sufficient to meet the costs and final settlement of the amount was deferred to the consideration of the estimates.

C.P. Telegraph Chief Is Here

Because of nine ticker services established in brokerage houses in Victoria, this city receives news of stock quotations as quickly as persons on the floor of the Vancouver Stock Exchange, P. G. McLean, superintendent of the British Columbia division of Canadian Pacific communications, said yesterday.

Mr. McLean came to Victoria Tuesday from Nanaimo to confer with J. J. Hickey, local representative of the C.P.R. Telegraphs.

There are thirty-six of these tickers in Vancouver brokerage houses, nine in Calgary, two in Trail and one each in Rossland, Revelstoke, Nelson and Duncan.

Oak Bay School Trustees' Budget Is Increased By $2,508

The Oak Bay School Board this year will require $2,508 more to meet current expenditures than it did last year, according to figures on the estimates, announced by the board.

The total requirement of the board this year will be $97,221, which includes an extraordinary expenditure of $1,420. This latter amount consists chiefly of funds required for improvements to the heating plant of the high school.

The total requirement last year was $94,713, which included an extraordinary estimate of $3,375, used to improve the Monterey School heating plant.

Of the total estimates last year $77,656 was required from municipal revenue. While the amount required this year has not as yet been accurately compiled it is expected to increase in proportion to the rise in the total figure.

The budget increase this year is due chiefly to the employment of an extra teacher at the high school and the fact that a few teachers will receive salary increases in accordance with the sliding scale.

Chairman of Commission Investigating Canadian Prisons Favors Training Course

Canadian Press

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Mr. Justice Joseph Archambault, chairman of the royal commission investigating Canada's penal system, agreed yesterday after hearing stories of brutality at the Kingston penitentiary that a training school for prison officers should be established.

The Montreal jurist heard Alfred Crossley, who said he was the first teacher at Kingston prison, tell of seeing a convict pulled from his cell by a guard who "kicked him like a football" from one building to another. The prisoner's head was bashed three times against a wall, he said.

Rev. A. E. Smith, representing the Canadian Labor Defence League, had previously told the royal commissioners that a Communist prisoner, who asked to be changed from a corner cell without a light or fresh air because he was ill, was cursed by a guard.

"It is not a crime to be a Communist," remarked Mr. Justice Archambault. "There must be a training school for all officers in penitentiaries. Men are placed in these positions who are quite unfit to handle men or to make decisions."

The long-standing allegation that a shot was fired at Tim Buck, Communist leader, during the 1932 riots in the Kingston penitentiary was repeated to the commission by Rev. A. E. Smith at yesterday's session.

Mr. Smith asked that the guard who allegedly fired at Buck and missed "be made to tell why he fired." He said Buck could name the guard.

Securing of an estimate on the cost of necessary alterations to the Margaret Jenkins School auditorium stage, the estimate not to exceed $150, was authorized by the City School Board yesterday evening. The school Parent-teacher Association is to pay half the cost of the work. In reply to a letter from the association the trustees granted them use of the auditorium for functions other than meetings and also granted permission to hold a dance in the auditorium.

Will Display Hooked Rugs

Mrs. J. Erickson To Demonstrate Under W.I. Auspices

At the monthly meeting of the West Saanich Women's Institute, held at the Institute Hall at Brentwood, Tuesday, Mrs. J. D. Gordon gave an interesting discourse on parliamentary procedure which aroused much discussion. Mrs. J. Erickson spoke on the old-fashioned hooked floor mat.

Mrs. Gordon traced the history of parliamentary rules explaining that the present procedure as outlined by May, Bourinot and Roberts came from the British Parliament. The duties of president, secretary and treasurer were explained, also the correct handling of a motion, reconsideration of a motion, recording of minutes, treasurer's report, etc. Many questions were asked and several problems elucidated. Mrs. Gordon was accorded a very hearty vote of thanks.

Following this Mrs. Jean Erickson of Oak Bay exhibited charming examples of the old-time hooked mats.

Mrs. Erickson, born in Cumberland County, Nova Scotia, of United Empire Loyalist stock, laughingly declared that she was born not with a silver spoon in her mouth, but with a rug hook in her hand, as she cannot remember when she could not hook.

The different rugs were shown and it was explained that while some of the designs were original, others were the old Canadian designs. The attractive color combinations, artistic proportions and the uniformity of the work aroused enthusiastic comment from the Institute members.

Mrs. Erickson anounced that a display of her rugs and a demonstration of hooking would be held on Saturday, February 13, from 2 to 4, at the Academy of Useful Arts, 853 Fort Street, when information will be given to those who are interested.

Novel Costumes At Fort Smith Masquerade Ball

Canadian Press

Fort Smith, N.W.T., Feb. 11.—In trappers' cabins, at lonely police posts and at isolated trading stores residents of the Northland had something to talk about about today—the fourth annual Fort Smith masquerade ball.

In a colorfully decorated hall, more than 135 persons danced from Monday night to early Tuesday, trappers and fur traders, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, airmen and men and women of the north.

They left by dog teams, and afoot on snowshoes and skis for their homes. Some came from cabins, far from any settlement.

Surprise celebrants were crews and and passengers of two airplanes which stopped here over Monday night.

About 100 costumes were brought 550 miles by airplane from Edmonton, besides prizes for costumes, novelty and square dances featured the ball.

Prize for the best-dressed woman in costume went to Mrs. J. M. Morrow, wife of Fort Smith's doctor. She was Mme. Pompadour. Sergt. Sorenson of the Royal Canadian Air Force, clad as a bridesmaid in a comic wedding, was given the award for best-dressed man.

Pilot Mat Berry, hero of two northland rescues last fall, was dressed in a flannelette nightgown and wig as a spinster. He, along with Pilot Stan McMillan, a ferocious Fu Manchu, were flying the planes which stopped overnight.

To Alkalize Acid Indigestion Away Fast

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE ARE ADOPTING THIS REMARKABLE "PHILLIPS" WAY

On all sides, people are learning that the way to gain almost incredibly quick relief, from stomach conditions arising from over-acidity, is to alkalize the stomach with Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

You take either two teaspoons of the liquid Phillips' after meals; or two Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Almost instantly "acid indigestion" goes, gas from hyper-acidity, "acid-headaches"—from over-indulgence in food or smoking—and nausea are relieved. You feel made over; forget you have a stomach.

Try this Phillips' way if you have any acid stomach upsets. And try it particularly, for quick relief, if you are using a less natural or less effective alkalizer. Get either the liquid "Phillips" or the remarkable, new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Each tablet equals a teaspoon of the liquid form. Only 25¢ for a big box at drug stores.

Two Artists Give Pleasure

Timberg-Ramsay Recital Was Interesting One

By G. J. D.

Under the auspices of the National Council of Education and the local Musical Art Society, an interesting recital, by Anders Timberg, Swedish tenor, and Mary Ramsay, Scottish pianiste, was given at the Empress Hotel ballroom yesterday evening.

The varied programme (by no means a light task as the singer was handicapped by a cold), with some substitutions, consisted of airs from opera, seventeenth century English songs, a group of Swedish songs, a miscellany of Russian and German songs, sung by Mr. Timberg, and a group of three numbers, "The Sea," "Barcarolle" and "Bird Song," played by Miss Ramsay.

Anders Timberg has an unique vocal art, born of a keen musical sense and research, reflective in the delineations and projections of the character of his songs. He has, too, vocal command and a good coloring of tone, which stand him to excellent purpose as a recitalist of something different from the usual.

One is inclined to believe a greater gravity of tone, and a nearer acquaintance in the art of "bel canto" would enhance his vocal capabilities, but there were times when he was distinctly pleasing. Of such were the nearly brilliant attack in the flowing melody of the opening number, "Questa O Quello," from "Rigoletto," Rachmaninov's "Lilacs," the "Air 1652," "Over the Mountains," arranged by Roger Quilter (a delightful melody), the Swedish four numbers, where the singer seemed especially familiar and skilful, and the final group in the substituted Rutland Boughton number, the Russian romance, "Nie trebui," by Glinka, Bohn's "Still As the Night" and "Ouvre les Yeux Bleus" (Massenet), and the two recall songs, a Norwegian and an English song, the Wagner number, "Evening Star" and the old English "Drink To Me Only." But in the arrangement by Somervell of the seventeenth century tune, "Gathering Daffodils," while there rested refinement, it was felt a more legato, sustained singing was a requirement.

THE PIANIST

Mary Ramsay, perhaps, throughout her excellent accompaniments, was a trifle aggressive, but there was no mistaking her keen musical sense and her pianistic endowments.

The contrasting three Palmgren numbers of true "programme" music had admirable rhythmic influences, endowed with much personal insight: the rolling, thunderous billows of the sea, the "Barcarolle," a very pretty and skilfully-fashioned example of this form, had good graduation of dynamics (if strong occasionally), its novelty making an appeal. The concluding tonal nature picture by the Finnish composer, in the running, rippling passages was brilliant and dexterous, Miss Ramsay being brought twice to the platform.

The president of the Musical Art Society, Mrs. Allon Peebles, introduced the artists and made several announcements.

Attendants At Brilliant London Wedding

Thousands would have virtually given their shirts for a chance to be in the wedding party, where they could have had a closeup of the marriage pageant at the recent London wedding of the Duke of Norfolk and Hon. Lavinia Strutt, but its interest apparently was lost on the little page, pictured above turning his back on the whole thing. The members of the new Duchess's bridal party were attired in the bridegroom's racing colors, sky blue and scarlet.

Bachelor M.P. Wants More Babies

British Birth-rate Decline Discussed In House

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—Perplexed legislators — bachelors all — besought the government today to do something about the strange scarcity of girl babies in England.

Ronald Cartland, thirty, Conservative, put the question of posterity up to the government yesterday, urging it to "make recommendations thereto."

He was particularly concerned that not enough girl babies were being born to take their places as future British mothers, thus accelerating the declining birth rate.

"Why," asked bachelor Cartland, "are we having fewer children than in the past?"

Quick to answer was fellow bachelor and Conservative Richard A. Pilkington "I learn with amazement and horror that even in this House there are nearly 200 bachelors," he declared.

Throughout the exchange, Arthur Hayday, member for West Nottingham and father of seventeen children, sat in silence.

Cartland pointed out the birth rate in Great Britain had dropped steadily since 1875.

As a solution to the problem, Pilkington suggested a tax on bachelors would solve the problem by making marriage and paternity more attractive

Granddaughter of Mackenzie Dies

Canadian Press

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 10.—Mrs. Margaret Mackenzie Thomas, eighty-nine, granddaughter of one of the discoverers of the Mackenzie River in the Canadian Northwest, died here Tuesday night.

Her grandfather, Daniel Mackenzie, was a member of the exploration party led by Sir Alexander Mackenzie that mapped and named the Mackenzie River, running from the Great Slave Lake to the Arctic Ocean. Her grandfather and later her father, George Mackenzie, held executive posts with the Hudson's Bay Trading Company.

A native of Chicoutimi, Que., she lived here for fifty years.

FIRST UNITED Y.P.S.

The regular weekly meeting of the First United Y.P.S. was held on Monday evening. The meeting opened with a short business session, with Alex Crawford, the president, in the chair.

Miss Jessie Gamble led the devotional, choosing as her subject "The Race of Life." Miss Lauretta McCall acted as accompanist.

The guest speaker, Miss Lina Mess, of the Children's Aid Society, gave an interesting story of the history of the society since its inception in 1901. A vote of thanks to the speaker was expressed by Alex Crawford.

V.O.N. Appeals For Woolens

The V.O.N. is making an urgent appeal for used woolen or flannel underwear, or pieces of such, to make babies' vests and nightgowns, also for old linen. Contributions may be left in the V.O.N. box outside the headquarters, Room 102, Pemberton Building. As the demand for such articles is particularly heavy, the V.O.N. will be grateful for any donations of this kind.

Britannia W.A. Hears Reports

At the meeting of the W.A. to Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, Tuesday evening, Mrs. A. Hall presiding, reports were given by Mrs. J. Dempster, the treasurer; Mrs. E. Finn, chairman of the social committee, and Mrs. H. Granrose told of five new applicants for membership who were later initiated by the president. Mrs. F. Stewart reported visiting sick veterans in the Jubilee and St. Joseph's Hospitals, and also several members who are ill.

Mrs. A. Hall, Mrs. A. Norris, Mrs. M. Dolphin and Mrs. C. Badger were chosen to represent the W.A. at the T.V.A. ball on February 26. Mr. John Neary, president of Britannia branch, addressed the gathering, complimenting them on their splendid work and wishing them every success.

The next card social will be held on February 25. Plans are under way for a St. Patrick's tea on March 17. Mrs. G. Ree volunteered to make card-table covers. Mrs. A. Norris offered to attend to the memorial tablet for two weeks. Mrs. Norris was again chosen press correspondent. The mystery packages were won by Mrs. P. Swetnam and Mrs. G. Sheldrick. Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. F. Finn and her committee.

London Praise For Ann Harding

Canadian Press

London, Feb. 11.—London critics accorded a favorable reception today to Ann Harding's revival of Bernard Shaw's "Candida" at the Globe Theatre last night. It was Miss Harding's London debut and interest in her appearance had been increased by her recent marriage to Werner Janssen, orchestra conductor.

"Seldom have I seen a more beautifully balanced cast," The Telegraph's critic wrote. "Both Miss Harding's and Nicholas Hannen's performances have such life and integrity that I would not alter them if I could. But I've seen Sybil Thorndyke put into the part a human warmth more endearing."

The Times said Miss Harding played with "quietness, dignity, authority and charm to a lovely, moving conclusion."

Many Functions Held in Ottawa

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Governor-General and Lady Tweedsmuir entertained twenty-one guests at dinner Tuesday, including the Charge d'Affaires of France and Mme. de Lageneste, the Most Rev. J. C. Forbes, Archbishop of Ottawa, and Sir Robert and Lady Borden.

Lady Tweedsmuir, attended by Mrs. George Pape, who will replace Miss Spencer-Smith as lady-in-waiting, and Miss Spencer-Smith, were present at a meeting of the Women's Institutes at Aylmer today.

The garrison ball, graced by the presence of Their Excellencies, was held Monday and proved one of the most brilliant events of the winter season in the capital.

Notables to Visit City Gardens

Among the interesting personalities who write they intend to come to the Empress Hotel during "Spring Gardens Week," April 24 to May 1, is Norvell Gillespie, garden editor of the Sunset Magazine, Martha E. Phillips, garden consultant, and garden commentator over the N.B.C. network weekly each Sunday from San Francisco; Mrs. Leonard B. Slosson, vice-president National Council of State Garden Clubs of Los Angeles who endeared herself to the hearts of garden owners when she was here last June; and Grace Luckhart, well-known editor and columnist of the Vancouver Daily Province.

While here, it is hoped Martha E. Phillips will give one of her deservedly popular lectures on gardens. Three years ago while taking a course at Kew, she found time to do a survey of the best features of noted English gardens and also prepared slides of them. Later she did the same for Norwegian and Swedish gardens.

News of Clubwomen

St. Saviour's Girls' W.A.—The St. Saviour's Girls' W.A. held their regular meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Hughes, Raynor Avenue. The devotional period was in charge of Miss Mae Price and Mrs. Nancy Augustine. The business session then followed. Two plays were selected which will be put on in the future. Dainty refreshments were later served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held on Monday, February 15

Tuckabatchee Club—The February meeting of the Tuckabatchee Club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss May Pollard, Niagara Street. Following a short business session presided over by Miss Florence Phillimore, the president, several of the girls gave interesting talks on their vocations. Miss V. Freeman spoke on public health, Miss M. Siddall on pharmacy, Miss B. Parker on her work at Turner Beeton's, wholesale manufacturers; Miss M. Pollard on teaching, Miss B. Braund on nursing and Miss J. Hall on newspaper work. Misses E. Middleton and F. Phillimore played a pianoforte duet, and an interesting evening was brought to a close with refreshments served by the social committee.

Fairfield Women's Association—The monthly meeting of the Fairfield W.A. was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Butler, 10 Bushby Street, with a good attendance of members and friends and the president, Mrs. E. Thomson, in the chair. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. G. Gordon. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and found to be very satisfactory; reports of other committees were also given. The W.A. decided to be the hostess at the W.M.S. anniversary tea on February 25, Mrs. J. C. Warren to be the convener. A donation was also voted for the purchase of hymn books. After the business meeting closed, the sewing conveners gave out some work to be done for the sale to be held later on. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Moon and Mrs. McCaw. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered by Mrs. G. Piercy.

It has been estimated that only one of every 166 persons lives long enough to die of old age.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1937

According to astrology this is a day of conflicting planetary influences. It is more fortunate for women than for men.

The stars favor entertaining. Hospitalities of an official or semi-official character should be especially successful.

There is a promising sign for theatres. Both screen and stage are to enjoy a season of brilliant achievement. Young players are to make their names famous this year when there will be a great demand for amusement—a sign of troubled times.

Under this sway warning is given that there may be many efforts to get money quickly and again reckless methods of business may be attractive to persons with weak wills.

The aspects conducive to sharp practices are likely to affect workers who will suffer through the secret plans of foreign leaders.

Uranus is in a place supposed to harmonize conflicting ideas regarding governmental policies. Common foes will cause the union of supporters of opposite theories in legislative bodies.

Persons much in the public eye will announce their engagements as Lent comes to a close this year.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of transition when uncertainties must be met with decision, which will be fortunate.

Children born on this day probably will be of courageous nature and positive opinions. Subjects of this sign are leaders in whatever line of work they choose.

Like Abraham Lincoln, who was born in 1809, Tadeusz Kosciusko, the Polish patriot, claimed this as his natal day in 1746. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Charles Robert Darwin, naturalist, 1809, and George Meredith, English novelist, 1828.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT

CRIME FILE ON BOLITHO BLANE

By DENNIS WHEATLEY

Copyright, 1937, NEA Service Inc.; William Morrow & Co.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Boarding CARLTON ROCKSAVAGE'S yacht, GOLDEN GULL, off Miami, to investigate the disappearance of BOLITHO BLANE, British financier and Rocksavage's chief competitor in world soap trade, Detective Officer KETTERING finds strange marks on Blane's cabin carpet and blood on the curtain.

Kettering examines all passengers including NICHOLAS STODART, Blane's secretary; Rocksavage and his daughter FERRI; LADY WELTER; REGINALD and MRS. JOCELYN; Lady WELTER'S daughter and son-in-law; the BISHOP OF BUDE; COUNT LUIGI POSODONI and INOSUKE HAYASHI.

Kettering finds Rocksavage sought a merger with Blane to save his company; that Lady Welter is heavily interested; that Hayashi desperately sought to sell a huge soap monopoly either to Blane or Rocksavage; that the Bishop bears some mysterious relationship to Rocksavage. This last he learns through a letter from Blane to Bishop, warning that strange things might take place on the yacht.

President Bloomberg Rocksavage, 1912. Chairman and Managing Director Grandol Soaps, 1915. President Denton Bros. in 1916. Formed Sen Toilet Preps., 1918. Founder and President Rocksavage Inc., 1922. Rocksavage Con., 1933. Recreations: yachting, golf. Address: 1482 Riverside Drive, N. Y. C.; Lake House, Wading River, Long Island. T. RIV. 4827; WAD. 362. Clubs: Union, Grolier, New York Yacht, Hython, Corinthian Yacht, Bevor Dam Sports; Londdon, American; Paris, Travelers.

Further to the above we have no police record, but the following details are based on general information:

Carlton Rocksavage came of a respectable middle-class family but, as a younger son, had to make his own way. On finishing his education he entered the soap firm of Spears Cunliff and, six years later, transferred to Standard Oil, in both of which he gained considerable general experience. He left the latter to become a director, again in soap, of Bloomberg Frien, a small company of which he soon became the moving spirit.

His rise to eminence as a financier dates, however, from his marriage with Antoinette Pritchard in 1912. Her father put up the necessary capital and the firm was reorganized as Bloomberg Rocksavage in the autumn of that year, with Rocksavage as president.

The company secured large contracts from the Allies for supplies in the early stages of the war and it was in order to take advantage of war contracts that Rocksavage assumed the chairmanship of Grandol Soaps, which had their headquarters in Paris, in 1915.

The following year he also became president of Denton Bros. Inc., and by that time his financial interest was spreading in every direction.

Early in 1918 he formed Sen Toilet. Preparations to handle other lines allied to the soap industry and at the conclusion of the war he was reputed to be worth a very considerable fortune. His companies suffered somewhat in the after-war slump but various retrenchments were effected and his business continued to develop in all parts of the world, until the depression set in, 1932, however, found him in very serious difficulties and it was rumored then that he might go under.

His original partner, Mostyn Bloomberg, died in the November of that year. The cause of his death was never cleared up quite satisfactorily. He was found dead in his office chair one afternoon and poison of a subtle variety, which would leave little trace, was suspected.

It is believed, however, that, if this was the case, the poison was self-administered as Bloomberg, in addition to having a large and expensive family, had lived with the utmost extravagance for many years, and had come to the end of his financial resources. No suspicion attaches to Rocksavage in this matter, although he was present in the same block of offices at the time.

After his partner's death he reorganized as Rocksavage Consolidated in January, 1933, and then succeeded in bringing his companies through the depression.

He has, however, never regained his financial strength and last year has shown a steady decline in the shares of those concerns in which he is interested. This is largely due to a price cutting war which he has been waging with the British soap group, controlled by Bolitho Blane.

MISS FERRI ROCKSAVAGE

Only child of the above. Born 10-5-1913. Educated Heath Hurst School, Long Island, Munich and Paris. Prominent socialite and member of the young New York Smart Set.

On her return from Europe four years ago she at once became a press personality. Is fond of amateur acting and has appeared at nearly all smart charity shows in recent years. Much photographed and credited with numerous love affairs.

There are grounds to suppose that the Wendel-Norton marriage was broken up on her account, although she was not cited as correspondent.

Last fall she was constantly in company with well-known film star, Jack Houghton, and there were rumors of her engagement to him at the time, but nothing came of this.

She often accompanies her father upon his yachting trips and does hostess at the big private entertainments which he gives in his New York and Long Island homes. She is often absent at house parties, however, and lives the independent life of a modern woman.

MALAY PORT IS TO BE FORTIFIED

Singapore, Feb. 11.—Construction of military defence works and barracks at Penang, about 350 miles from here on the northwest coast of Malaya, is to be the next step towards completing Great Britain's defence scheme in the Far East.

So far 120 acres of land have been reserved at Penang for the erection of barracks, stores, gun emplacements and all requisites of a military cantonment. The Royal Air Force is organizing an advance airdrome close by. Vulnerability of Penang Harbor has long been a source of anxiety to the authorities, for damage done there during the Great War by the German raider Emden has not been forgotten.

The Family Doctor

GERMS CARRIED BY PERSONS WHO ARE NOT SICK CAUSE MANY INFECTIONS

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

Certain diseases are transferred regularly through soil, food, and water. Typhoid fever, for example, is frequently carried by infected water or food; hookworm may be picked up from the soil; the germs of septic sore throat are carried by infected material. Many infections, however, are transmitted by human beings who, while not themselves sick, can convey germs to other people.

All of us are constantly being invaded by germs. When we are recovering from disease, our bodies usually get rid of the dangerous germs. Occasionally, however, people do not rid themselves of all such germs, and those that remain find resting and breeding places somewhere in the body. There are people, for example, who recover from diphtheria and who continue to carry dangerous germs in noses and throats thereafter. For this reason, health departments require a certain number of nose and throat tests before releasing the patient from quarantine.

There are people who recover from typhoid fever but continue to carry germs in the gall-bladder or elsewhere in the body, excreting them into the soil or contaminating their own fingers and carrying the germs to people who are well. Such people are known as carriers, of which science recognizes several different types.

There is, for instance, the convalescent carrier. This person has had the disease and continues to carry the germs in his throat or body for six or ten weeks.

There are people known as passive carriers, who carry dangerous germs, although they themselves do not have the diseases. Then there are active carriers, who continue to carry germs long after they recover from the disease. Then there is the present or temporary carrier—a person, for instance, who feeds a child with infantile paralysis and who can carry that infection from the child to another person.

Carriers may be classified, also, according to the part of the body in which the germs reside. Thus, there are intestinal, mouth, and blood carriers.

The organisms which cause malaria can be carried in the blood. Those which cause pneumonia, diphtheria, and sore throat, and germs of typhoid, cholera, and similar conditions are carried in the bowel.

Any person suspected of being a carrier of disease should have a complete examination to indicate the nature of the germs carried, the places in which they are carried, and the best methods of getting rid of them.

IS CENTENARIAN

Beamsville, Ont. Feb. 11 (Canadian Press).—Mrs. Mary Ann Geiger, who has lived through the reigns of six British sovereigns, celebrated her 100th birthday yesterday. According to the family Bible, Mrs. Geiger was born in Preston, February 10, 1837. Today she is the only survivor of a family of twelve, all of whom lived to a good old age.

Ten years ago her husband, David Geiger, died at the age of ninety-one after celebrating their sixty-seventh wedding anniversary.

HOUSING ACT FIELD GROWS

But High Municipal Tax Rates Are Problem, Dunning Tells Commons

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Constitutional limitation and high municipal tax rates were some of the influences retarding progress in slum clearance and housing so far as the federal administration was concerned, Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, told the House of Commons yesterday. The Dominion Housing Act was being used to a greater degree, however, and progressive amendments had made it more accessible to those needing low-cost homes.

Yesterday the House listened to a discussion of Canada's need for abolition of slum areas and the creation of healthy, comfortable homes available to the low-wage earner.

MASSEY SPEAKS

Denton Massey, Conservative, Toronto-Greenwood, moved a resolution calling for consideration of a plan aimed at elimination of slums and provision of facilities whereby every family could be adequately and comfortably housed. It was still under debate when the House adjourned.

Numerous speakers yesterday dealt with housing problem, all agreeing with Mr. Massey there was great need for such a move and that it would not come by natural evolution. Mr. Massey declared return of prosperity would not automatically remove the evil.

Rev. Pascoe Goard Dies In England

British-Israel Head Formerly Lived in Vancouver; Known Here

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—Rev. W. Pascoe Goard, LL.D., F.R.G.S., one of the founders of the British Israel World Federation, who lived in Vancouver for many years, died at London, England, on Tuesday, according to word received here.

He was a partner with the late Prof. Edward Odium in establishing the British Israel Foundation in Vancouver more than thirty-five years ago.

Author of more than thirty volumes dealing with the British Israel movement, a minister on the retired list of the United Church of Canada, and editor of The National Message, organ of the movement, Dr. Goard had a long and active life. He was seventy-seven.

Word of his death was received here by his daughter, Mrs. M. Ruth Eaton, 1190 West Twelfth Avenue, with whom he stayed during a visit to the city last year.

After joining the Methodist Church as minister more than fifty years ago, he held pastorates throughout western Canada, finally settling in Vancouver. At one time he was minister of Zion Methodist Church here.

Dr. Goard visited Victoria while he was in Vancouver last year.

New Coronation Claims Heard

Court Sits in London; Considers Claims of Those Wishing to Serve

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—All the King's carpenters and all the King's peers have one idea today—the coronation.

Workmen are busy day and night on alterations which will transform the interior of Westminster Abbey into a setting—one of blue and gold—for the crowning of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, May 12.

Commissioners of the Court of Coronation Claims appointed by the King held their first meeting at the Privy Council offices in Downing Street today.

There, in the full dignity of court dress and under the presidency of Lord Chief Justice Hewart, the court receives petitions from those claiming the hereditary right to perform service at the coronation and allots the fees due for such services.

The fact Queen Elizabeth will now be crowned in May is expected to lead to a fresh crop of claims. But it has already been announced that to secure continuity of the arrangements, claims allowed by King Edward VIII.'s court will remain effective under King George.

PROBLEM OF SPURS

One problem which the new monarch will have to decide is who is to carry the golden spurs. King Edward did not make up his mind which of the three claimants should be allowed the honor before his abdication, and the court already had shelved the matter, after anxious consideration, by leaving it to "the King's pleasure."

Plans for the interior decoration of the Abbey have been completed. There will be seats for 7,700 guests to view the coronation proper.

Materials to decorate and prepare the Abbey include:

One thousand nine hundred square yards of carpet, more than 11,000 square yards of boarding and felt to cover the floors of the stands and corridors, 6,000 square yards of fabric for the ceiling and timbering, 1,000 square yards of blue and gold brocatelle for the front of the stands and other structures, 2,500 yards of velour and 18,000 yards of braid.

Letters To The Editor

CANADIAN IMMIGRATION

To the Editor:—In previous letters on the above subject, I have pointed out that an early resumption of immigration will benefit farmers and labor in common with all other classes, and I now propose to enlarge on that aspect of the question.

General Hornby has said and one must agree with him, "that organized immigration, with adequately financed settlement on the land, will afford a very great deal of employment to our industrial unemployed; lumber and other materials will be required for building homes for the new people, as well as barns and other buildings; the homes will need furniture; the farms will require implements and equipment — all of which items are manufactured right here in Canada by our own workers, and it is our own workers who will erect the houses and other buildings."

It is pointed out that not only lumber, bricks, cement and other building materials will be required but also hardware produced in Canada by Canadian labor.

In addition to this, furniture for the immigrants' new homes, stoves, heaters, beds, mattresses, tables and chairs, carpets, linoleum, china and crockery, glass and cutlery, saucepans, kettles, buckets, are only some examples of what would be required.

The foundation live stock necessary to give the immigrant a start in farming is raised by Canadian farmers and would have to be purchased from them.

As to the objection of some farmers who take the position that immigration should wait for prices of agricultural products to improve, General Hornby propounds the questions, "Who can say whether prices of agricultural products will get better, or worse, under present conditions of employment? With the bulk of our consumers unable to purchase the meat, poultry, eggs, butter, milk, etc., which they need, how can we be sure that prices of agricultural produce will improve? Would it not be better to stimulate the demand for farmers' products by distributing purchasing power to our workers through a resumption of our arrested development?"

In the past, immigration has afforded work and prosperity to the Canadian people. This seems assured in the future providing it is properly organized and properly financed.

BONDHOLDERS TO BE CONGRATULATED!

To the Editor:—The details of the Fortin plan for the "relief" of Victoria's finances are now out. At the outset I would like to congratulate the bondholders at being represented by such an astute and canny gentleman as Mr. Fortin. He did a good job for them! The effect of the plan is that the holder of a 5½% bond for $1,000 due, say, 1956, would receive 1% of this interest in advance from the date the plan goes through to the maturity of the bond in 1956, and 4½ per cent would be paid annually on the bond for forty years, so that the net rate to a holder on this basis would be 5 per cent on the investment. In other words, there is actually not one cent of reduction in the principal or interest on the bonds nor is there any annual "saving," the only concession being to lengthen out the time of payment. If these are the best terms that the city council can get from its creditors, then the prospect is not a very rosy one. But I do not think that they are the best terms, and in their present form should not be accepted by the city. The council should submit an alternative plan and press for its acceptance. This plan should be the immediate refunding of all issues at not more than 4 per cent, with some reduction off the principal.

It is high time that we came to grips with the problem of public debt and not pass it on to the next generation, who will have plenty of troubles of their own.

Supposing, for example, the holder of a $1,000 Victoria bond had invested in the bonds of, say, a shipping company operating on the Great Lakes, in a recent reorganization he would have been asked to accept for his original bond a new one to the amount of $600 and also be asked to accept 5 per cent on this reduced amount. He would not have liked it, of course, but would have been obliged to take it as the best offer the company could make. This is the kind of relief that industrial organizations in Canada and other countries have been asking their bondholders to accept during the depression, with the result that industrial finance is now on a sounder basis than for some years past. The same thing will have to come in public debt sooner or later, and bondholders are not blind to this fact, but naturally are holding out and will not make concessions unless actually forced to do so.

If Victoria is forced to struggle along for forty years under its present burden of debt, with the consequent curtailment of necessary improvements and replacements during that time, it does not take very much imagination to picture what the city will be like long before the debt is paid off. No, Mr. Fortin, you will have to do better than that!

SICK BENEFIT EXPERIENCE

To the Editor:—For twenty years I have worked around logging and sawmills at different camps on the island, and almost in each camp any amount from $1.50 to $4 was taken off my paycheck every month to pay for the doctor or hospital if I got sick.

And this idea worked O.K., except that I had to take whatever doctor the company I worked for decided was good enough. There was no choice of doctor, as the government agrees to provide under the new plan. If I didn't agree to subscribe, I didn't get the job, and that wasn't so good. I would rather join the government scheme so that I can be sure of choosing my own medical man for operations, etc., and be sure of the best treatment available.

Every camp I know of has a plan for medical attention for the employees, and the doctors in the nearest town are tied up under agreement to give service, but if the employee is not satisfied with the doctor or hospital of supplies, he can go to his own doctor or hospital and pay for his service. If I refused to allow the deduction from my wages I was fired, pronto.

The reason why these companies tied up with the doctor and hospital was to be sure the doctors and hospitals got paid and the doctor was very keen to get these contracts with the company and men, because they would be free from bill collecting.

AN EQUITABLE DEAL, OUR NEED

To the Editor:—I have taken a great deal of interest in the criticisms you have published of tourists who have been on our island. Practically all the adverse criticisms have had to do with our roads. In this we will all agree, except, probably, the Minister of Public Works and his cabinet confreres.

If this great industry—call it industry for want of a better name—is worth as much to the country and our island, why in the name of common sense do we not keep the machinery of this great enterprise in first-class shape, well oiled and running smoothly?

Again, why insult the labor, as needed to keep this great industry speeded up and free running, by dubbing it dole and relief?

As well call the machinists in the shops who keep our mines smoothly running, relief workers. Any needed work addng to the assets of the country should not be called relief. I hate the word. If you, Mr. Editor, have read the debasing, degrading forms these workers have to sign to get to work on these same needed roads, you would hate it, too.

These servants of ours down at Victoria could not have thought of any better way to sap our manhood.

According to the reports of the House at Victoria the residents of Vancouver Island contributed in various forms of road taxes the sum, roughly, of $1,350,000, and they, our servants, remember, dole out according to their published estimates, $165,000 for to be spent on the roads of the island. Just about one-ninth. I do not expect 100 per cent of this $1,350,000 to be spent on our island, although the island is worth it, but there is a vast difference between 100 per cent and one-ninth.

No wonder that bunch in Victoria grabs at these things and shout for a separate province. We do not want a separate provnce, but we do want to see that our servants in Victoria see that we get an equitable deal.

As for your part, Mr. Editor. Put in heavy black type all criticisms dealing with roads sent in by the tourists. Let us keep on hammering away at the road question until it comes to the ears of our public servants in Victoria that something must be done.

GEORGE B. BROWN, D.D.S.

THE BISHOPS' CONSISTENCY

To the Editor:—So we can kill our fellow men, the archbishops and bishops tell us, though I suppose we shall still hang individuals for committing murder! Does it mean that God does not mind so long as it is done on a large scale, with bombs and machine guns, etc.? And are we to conclude that after all, the only real sin in His sight is a desire on the part of man to marry the woman he loves?

FUNDS VOTED FOR LEGATIONS

Premier King Tells Commons Mr. Bruce Has Admirably Filled Post of Minister to Japan

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Canada's representation abroad both in legations at foreign capitals and on special occasions such as the coronation should be in keeping with Canada's status as a nation and in line with the procedure of other nations of the British Commonwealth in the opinion of Prime Minister King.

He defended expenditures on legations and representation at the coronation when estimates of the Department of External Affairs were before the House of Commons. The estimates were later approved.

MR. BRUCE AT TOKIO

During the discussion, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, who recently made an Empire tour, questioned the physical fitness of Hon. R. Randolph Bruce, present Canadian minister at Tokio, to carry such a responsibility. He mentioned this with regret, he said.

Prime Minister King replied the defective eyesight of the minister was to be regretted, but as Mr. Bruce had so well discharged his duties as Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia his handicap could not have been very serious.

At the time of his appointment Mr Bruce had himself mentioned his defective sight as a possible handicap and declared he would be ready to retire at any time the government so desired.

Reports from Tokio indicated, the Prime Minister said, that Mr. Bruce had filled his position admirably ever since he took office.

VIEWS ON EXPENDITURES

On the general question of outlays on Canada's representatives abroad, Harry Leader, Liberal, Portage la Prairie, and J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, were the chief critics. Mr. Leader protested against increasing expenditures on the upkeep of legation buildings. T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto-Broadview, objected to legations of any kind and declared no more should be established.

Mr. Woodsworth could see no reason why $197,000 for a Canadian contingent to the coronation and $35,000 for official representation should be voted when appropriations for child welfare and other social services were small.

Canadian were getting away from their earlier ideals of simplicity and living within their means, and were trying to keep up a false front, he said.

RELIEF FUNDS

The comparison was unfair, said Mr. King, because Mr. Woodsworth ignored all the money the provinces and municipalities were spending on social services and all the money the Dominion was spending for unemployment relief and pensions.

He believed the people of Canada wanted their country adequately represented as the oldest Dominion in the empire and would resent it if Canada were not as well represented as Australia and South Africa.

MASSEY'S SALARY

The estimates included an increase of $900 in the salary of Hon. Vincent Massey, High Commissioner to Great Britain. This would bring his salary to $14,000, and Mr. Leader said his expense allowance brought his total remuneration to $40,000.

Expenses of government offices abroad were growing at an alarming rate, said Mr. Leader. As he had criticized the Bennett government for increasing these expenditures he was disappointed at further increases coming from the Liberal government, for which he had great respect.

Mr. Bennett said the increase for Mr. Massey should be provided by an amendment to the statute rather than by an estimate.

Mr. King said he was following the practice of the former government.

Construction of two outside ventilators, at a cost of $70, for the High School, was authorized by the City School Board yesterday evening on recommendation of the building and grounds committee.

HEDLEY SHAMROCK GOLD MINES LIMITED

(NON-PERSONAL LIABILITY)

Under the Same Board of Directors, Officers and Management as

Announcement...

At the time the original syndicate was formed to acquire what is now known as the Hedley Mascot Gold Mines Limited (N.P.L.), another syndicate, composed largely of the same members, was formed to acquire certain other properties in the Hedley District. This syndicate was known as the Hedley Mascot Holdings, afterwards incorporated in a holding company known as the Hedley Mascot Holding Company Limited. The syndicate acquired a number of claims in the Hedley District on the opposite side of the river from the present Hedley Mascot Gold Mines and, during approximately the past three years, has been prospecting these claims and revising its holdings. It has in the meantime acquired certain other claims known as the "Apex" properties, which are on the same side of the river as the Hedley Mascot Company and in the near vicinity. Part of these claims are held by the company outright and part under a favorable option. These properties were all acquired after careful investigation and before the present boom in the Hedley District.

The syndicate has decided to proceed with a more intensive development of the claims and caused this company (Hedley Shamrock Gold Mines Limited, N.P.L.) to be incorporated, taking over all of the interests of the Holding Company. The management and directors of the Hedley Mascot Gold Mines Limited have agreed to act in the same capacity in this company, including Dr. Dolmage as Geologist.

The Company has decided that an offering of shares in this company shall be made to the public and not through brokers, and without payment of commission to anyone, the sole cost of the sale of shares being the advertisements inserted in newspapers.

Mr. R. H. (Pat) Stewart is Managing Director of the company, Dr. Victor Dolmage, Geologist, and Mr. V. J. Creeden will occupy a similar position with this company as he now occupies with the Hedley Mascot Gold Mines Limited, namely Secretary and Purchasing Agent. The cost of the immediate overhead of the company has been limited to $200.00 per month to Mr. Creeden, who has undertaken to supply an office, telephone and act as purchasing agent for this small monthly amount. Mr. Stewart and Dr. Dolmage will be paid in accordance with the work done as engineer and geologist. The other directors will receive no remuneration whatever, except the shares they receive as part of the original syndicate. These shares, however, are escrowed under the direction of the Superintendent of Brokers, and not released by him until the property has been proven, thus ensuring to the purchasing public that their money will not only go direct into the development of the property, but no one now connected with the company can make any profit out of it until the property has been properly proven.

This is a speculation, but, nevertheless, the directors feel they have wisely chosen their properties, which will compare most favorably with any undeveloped property in the district. The directors and management, with their experience gained in the development of the Hedley Mascot, can assure the public that all money subscribed will be spent in an economical and businesslike way to the company's best advantage and under the direction of Mr. Stewart, Managing Director, and Dr. Victor Dolmage, Geologist.

Full particulars of the capitalization, financing, etc., will appear in a second announcement.

TAKES CHANCE FOR GAME

Declarer Plays for Favorable Distribution of Cards Held by Opponent, to Make His Contract

By WM. E. McKENNEY

Bridge players long ago learned that when, to make a contract, they must find a certain favorable distribution of the cards, there is only one thing to do, and that is to play for that distribution. What does it matter, in trying to make a contract, if the hand does go down one trick more than it would have if the declarer had been willing to submit to what he thought was a bad break and take a loss on the chance that a good break would give him the contract?

As a matter of fact it is just such situations that give players the opportunity to make the hands about which bridge lovers like to read—overcoming obstacles that for the moment appear impossible.

North, declarer on today's hand, had just such a problem. He found the way to solve it, and this is to his credit, for his tenth trick was waiting for him all the time, although not in the exact place where less careful players would look for it.

North: ♠ 8 7 ♥ A K J 10 7 6 2 ♦ J ♣ K J 9
West: ♠ K J 9 ♥ 8 3 ♦ 7 6 ♣ A Q 10 5 4 3
East: ♠ 6 3 ♥ 9 5 4 ♦ A K Q 5 2 ♣ 8 7 6

Opening lead—♦ K. 12

When dummy was spread after the opening lead of the king of diamonds North saw that he could gain little from the bidding, except the probability of a successful club finesse. But, as dummy had only one club, this was not enough to give him his tenth trick.

The second round of diamonds was ruffed, and North took the chance of finding the king of spades in the East hand. The finesse of the queen lost to the king, and West returned a heart, which was won with dummy's queen.

A club was returned from dummy, and West won and led another heart. North now led four more rounds of trump, and West found the task of protecting both spades and clubs impossible.

An effective squeeze had been developed through taking advantage of the position of outstanding key cards.

Today's Contract Problem

West, after a pass by South, has bid one spade. East and West, having bid clubs and diamonds in addition, finally arrive at six clubs. Should North double, and if East then bids six spades, should South double?

TEACHERS ASK CUTS' RETURN

High School and Elementary Instructors Seek Salary Restorations

Partial restoration of salary cuts now in effect among city school teachers was requested in letters from high school and elementary teachers received by the City School Board yesterday evening. Both letters were tabled pending consideration of estimates.

Both letters cited increased living costs and the general move towards salary restoration as grounds for the approaches.

The board also received from the four high school janitors letters requesting salary increase in keeping with those made in salaries of elementary school janitors.

It was explained, however, the elementary janitors had not received increases, but there had been adjustments based on the number of classrooms each janitor cared for.

At yesterday evening's meeting the trustees were advised by the Department of Education of the reduction in government grants on account of teachers' salaries.

It was reported the reduction would mean a loss of about $12 per teacher, nurse and doctor employed on the staff, or a total reduction of $1,500 for the seven months of this year which it will affect.

The grants were reduced to $336 for elementary teachers, $388 for junior high school teachers, and $413 for high school teachers.

Miss Dorothy Dagg Dies at Nanaimo

Nanaimo, Feb. 11.—Miss Dorothy Eileen Dagg, twenty-three, died in Nanaimo Hospital yesterday following an attack of pneumonia. Miss Dagg was born in Victoria, but came with her parents to Nanaimo in her early girlhood days.

She later proved to be an athlete of outstanding ability. At a track and field meet of Nanaimo and district schools, she won a cup granted to the winner of most points. She was a sprinter and good at the high jump. In basketball she excelled, and was a member of the Nanaimo Yacht Club girls' team. Two days before she went to the hospital, she played an outstanding game with the Yacht Club girls. She joined the first girls' softball team here, and last season pitched for the Northfield Wideawakes.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dagg of Stewart Avenue; three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Paulli, Mrs. L. Quickenden, Nanaimo, and Miss Audrey Dagg, at home. The funeral will take place at 2.30 o'clock, Friday, Rev. W. P. Bunt officiating.

Such celebrated bands as those of Fred Waring, Leo Reisman, Guy Lombardo and Erno Rapee are expected to take part in the programme, and figures from public life will mingle with comedians, singers, dancers and actors at the tables of the "super night club" on the stage.

Head of the three network organizations and outstanding producers, playwrights and song writers are on the committe making arrangements.

Attendance At Schools Down

A decrease of 219 in total attendance at city schools during January was reported to the City School Board yesterday evening.

The total attendance last month was 5,036 and in January, 1936 it was 5,255.

There was an increase of forty-four in January attendance over December figures. The average attendance last month was 4,292.26. Corporal punishment was administered on thirty-eight occasions during the month.

Cabbage Tariff Questions Asked

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—"Was the government informed that new cabbage from Texas could be delivered in Winnipeg in bulk for a trifle over two cents per pound if the dumping duty was removed on January 22?" is a question asked in the House of Commons by L. A. Mutch, Liberal, Winnipeg South.

He asks if the dumping duty on cabbages entering western Canada was removed thirty days earlier than usual and if the government was aware there were several tons of the vegetables available in the Winnipeg area at the time. He asks if growers and fruit jobbers were notified the duty was to be removed.

The locomotive warning signal for approaching a highway grade crossing, as used by all railroads in this country, is two long and two short whistle blasts.

A ton of gold is worth nearly $500,000.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

By PETE SALLAWAY

LOCAL followers of the boxing game saw one of the poorest bouts that has been presented in Victoria for some time Tuesday night when Gordon Wallace, Vancouver, and John Blochlinger, Edmonton, met with the welterweight championship of Canada as the prize. Wallace, defending title-holder, won by a technical knockout in the eighth round.

* * *

There was a dispute over the outcome of the listless battle. Many of the fans are still convinced that the blow which felled Blochlinger and put him out of commission was undisputedly a foul. The doctor's investigation pointed to no resultant bruises or swelling, though, and on the strength of that Referee Roy Baker announced that either the Edmonton lad resume fighting within the next three minutes or forfeit the bout to Wallace. He didn't come out and Wallace retained his crown.

* * *

There was plenty of earnest mixing in the supporting card and that saved the show. Tim Keist, displaying superb form, lashed his way to a technical kayo over Harry Miller, game youth from Alberni, in the semi-main event. Referee Baker brought the match to an end early in the final round when he figured Miller was taking more punishment than was good for his health. The up-island youth was game enough but he would have wilted sooner or later under the Victorian's savage attacks and rather than see him take any more Baker stopped the fight.

Three woods, eight of the regular irons, a putter, and one of the trick clubs will be used by the average golfer when the fourteen-club ruling goes in effect January 1, 1938. Included among the trick clubs are the jigger, chipper, utility and sand blaster.

From one to three strokes were added to top division players' eighteen-hole cards when the change was previewed in the Miami Biltmore men's amateur championship.

Four of every five were directly hit, being compelled to reduce the number of sticks in their bags from as many as twenty-six, carried by the defending champion, Charles Whitehead of South River, N.J., to fifteen.

* * *

Two-thirds of the field preferred to do without the No. 1 or driving iron. All but Whitehead chose four woods with the rest irons. He used only three woods. Three-fourths of the participants would not give up the sand blaster, with a majority of the remaining quarter employing a chipper. Only one of every nine placed sufficient value on the jigger to carry it.

The utility club, much as it has been publicized in tournament competition, came in for very little recognition, averaging one of every fourteen players. Only three of seventy-three contestants stuck by the old idea of lugging two putters, although many have argued that that many are required, depending on the weather and speed of the green.

Although our thoughts are running a little ahead of season, at the moment they dwell on shorts, sweat suits and track shoes, a warm sun beating down on lush green grass and the flash of brown legs gleaming as they move around the track. It is a great satisfaction to look out upon a dull day such as we have had and imagine these things, even if the said imagination does run away with us, a little and we snap out of our reverie to speculate on the grimness of the present and the prospect of a great deal of rain before our castles in the air are once more a reality.

* * *

But to get to our point. It seems that there should be more track and field meets in our city, not particularly as a sport to watch, mind you, but as a sport to be taken part in by our many teen-age youngsters now in school. A couple of years back there used to be inter-high school track meets. We remember them clearly because they produced some of the keenest running competition we had ever witnessed. It is certainly time that these meets should be revived, so we take the privilege at this early date to do a little reminding on that point with hopes of some results this coming season when spiked shoes and brief running costumes will be once more quite in order.

Say Handicap Weights Heavy

Eleven Trainers Withdraw From Field For Lincolnshire Race

Canadian Press Cable

London, Feb. 11.—The field for the Lincolnshire Handicap, to be run March 17, was reduced from fifty-two to forty-one today when a number of trainers declined to accept the weights assigned their entries.

Weights for the remainder of the field were raised seven pounds.

Among the non-acceptors were the three top-weight horses, C. W. Gordon's Sea Bequest, the nominal favorite, and two French horses, the Duke of Westminster's Moody and M. M. Boussac's Astar. Each had been assigned 126 pounds.

The other non-acceptors were Commander III, Hocus Pocus, Barrystar, Night Patrol II, Holyrood, Dead Level, King Frost and Desert Cloud.

Skating Champ To Turn Pro

New York, Feb. 11.—Karl Schafer of Austria, Olympic figure skating champion in 1932 and 1936 and world's champion since 1930, announced yesterday evening through Madison Square Garden he is turning professional.

---

Officials of the Victoria Golf Club at Oak Bay announced this morning the frost is out of the course, including the greens, and play is again open to visitors and members.

Springs Now Off Oak Bay

Spring salmon are in evidence in the waters off Oak Bay, according to reports from Stan Williams of Wilson and Lenfesty. They are in fine condition and of good size. Johnny Bowker has landed four beauties during the last week. They weighed thirty-two, twenty-four, twenty-three and twelve pounds. Bill Hager, another ardent fisherman, hooked a twenty-pounder on Sunday. The best lure is said to be a number six Wonder.

ISSUE WARNING TO HOOPSTERS

Head of B.C. Section of A.A.U. Tells Athletes They Must Take Out Cards

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11. — Norman Porter, president of the British Columbia section of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, in a formal statement tonight warned basketball players to take out amateur cards immediately or run the risk of being barred from other A.A.U. of C., said:

The statement, issued following a meeting of the regional council of the British Columbia section of the A.A.U. of C., said:

"All athletes who have persistently been playing (basketball) without holding amateur cards must make immediate application for same, otherwise the cards may be refused if the athletes apply for cards in other sports."

ARE SUSPENDED

Officials of the British Columbia Basketball Association, including the president, first vice-president, second vice-president, secretary and treasurer, were recently suspended by the A.A.U. of C., British Columbia section, for alleged lack of initiative in prompting athletes to take out cards.

President Porter said despite rumors to the contrary, the officials of the basketball body still stand suspended, and he has received no word from the Dominion body as to their status.

Jack Taylor, president of the Victoria and District Basketball League, this morning reaffirmed his statement to the effect that Victoria was in the clear regarding the action being taken by the A.A.U., as all players have taken out cards.

Veterans Take Cribbage Match

A friendly cribbage match between the Army and Navy and the Fernwood Club last night at the former's headquarters, resulted in the veterans winning, 11 to 10, after a close battle.

Results, with the Army and Navy players first mentioned, follows: E. E. Hardistry and T. Comber, 1, A. Hewison and G. Cornish 2; G. Day and S. Bramley 1, C. Axhorn and A. W. Collier 2; W. J. Simpson and J. Crabbe 2, J. Slater and T. W. Lang 1; C. J. Denley and B. Wright 1, F. Drysdale and G. S. Creed 2; F. Fry and J. Warriner 3, G. Corness and C. Gruth 0; H. Walton and W. Hurst 2, G. Grandy and R. Colbert 1; J. Roberts and J. G. Johnson 1, D. Ryles and F. D. Morrison 2. S. Bramley was captain of the winners and Dave Stewart skippered the losers.

W. Crowther and Percy Fitzsimmons played an exhibition billiards match during the evening, with Crowther winning, 500 to 472. Fitzsimmons scored up the highest break, a 49. The winner's best was a 30.

Ambers Outpoints Day

Associated Press

New York, Feb. 11.—Lightweight champion Lou Ambers looked over the records today and found he finally was all-square with the opposition during his title run.

Anything but impressive since he whipped little Tony Canzoneri for the crown last year, Ambers at long last had reached a spot where his record as a champion showed two victories and a draw against a pair of defeats.

He gained that spot last night by outpointing Chicago's Davey Day in ten rounds, although he absorbed heavy punishment in the last three rounds in doing it.

At that, he gained only a split decision, winning the votes of the judges, while Referee Frank Fullam balloted for the Chicagoan, who outweighted the titleholder 136¼ to 135.

OTHER FIGHTS

Other fights reported by the Associated Press last night follow:

Chicago—Jack Roper, 192, Los Angeles, knocked out Ed Shelby, 217½, Cleveland (one).

Denver—Eddie Pierce, 158, Johannesburg, South Africa, outpointed Joe Jaramillo, 152, Denver (ten).

Oakland, Calif.—Jim Movey, 182½, Pittsburgh, knocked out Buck Everett, 179, Chicago (two).

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

LINCOLN'S DUEL . . .

Though Abraham Lincoln's only "affair of honor" began and ended in broad comedy, it assumed distinctly grim possibilities for a time—possibilities of his own or his opponent's death by the slash of a keen-edged cavalry sword.

Seeking to rile a Democratic official of Illinois, State Auditor James Shields, Lincoln addressed a sarcastic letter to him criticizing the management of public finances and had it published in a Springfield paper. He signed it "Aunt Rebecca." The letter aroused considerable ridicule and Shields burned with wrath.

Possibly the matter would have ended there had not two young ladies in Springfield, Miss Mary Todd, Lincoln's future wife, and Miss Julia Jayne, taken it on their shoulders to further torment the fiery Mr. Shields. Following Lincoln's procedure, they wrote a letter to Shields, through the medium of the newspaper, in which "Aunt Rebecca" proposed marriage. This letter was followed with another in which the celebration of the wedding was described in verse and signed "Cathleen." Shields blew up. Demanding the name of the letters' author from the editor of the newspaper in which they were published, he swore vengeance.

Not wanting to entangle the young ladies' names in the squabble, the editor asked Lincoln's advice. "Honest Abe" gallantly offered his own name as the solution, thus making himself a party to a lie. Shields forthwith demanded an apology for the notes and when that was not forthcoming, challenged Lincoln to a duel.

All arrangements were made. As the challenged, Lincoln named the weapons—cavalry swords. The two men and their seconds met on a sandbar in the Mississippi River near the town of Alton, September 22, 1842. They prepared for battle. Just as the duel was about to start several cool-headed friends of the pair arrived, halted the proceedings and managed to get the would-be duelists to laugh the affair off. They parted the best of friends.

"BEDLAM" . . .

Founded in 1247, the priory of St. Mary of Bethlehem was converted into an insane asylum in the early fifteenth century. The name of the hospital became popularly contracted to "Bedlam." From this was derived the modern word meaning a "place of uproar or confusion."

Tomorrow: Minister of War.

Copson Brilliant As M.C.C. Scores Victory

Canadian Press

Canberra, Australia, Feb. 11.—Devastating bowling by W. H. Copson, Derbyshire pro, featured the touring Marylebone Cricket Club's victory over a New South Wales county eleven by an innings and 140 runs today. The visiting team made 380 runs yesterday in the two-day match, their opponents being dismissed today for 162 and 78. Copson had the Australians in difficulty throughout their second innings, taking seven wickets for sixteen runs in six overs.

SET $600,000 FOR TRAINING

Heavy Expense Account Listed For Major Ball Clubs For Spring Work

Associated Press

New York, Feb. 11.—Major league baseball clubs will spend approximately $600,000 in spring training this season, with the New York Giants' $60,000 trip to Havana topping the list.

These figures represent the cost of transporting players to the training camps, paying all expenses in training and bringing them back to their respective major league cities for opening games.

While most clubs get a minor guarantee from interests in the cities where they train, only five are understood to have received substantial advances this season. They are the Giants and St. Louis Cardinals in the National League and the New York Yankees, Philadelphia Athletics and Detroit Tigers in the American.

Despite the guarantees, most teams figure to lose money on the trips. The Giants estimate their deficit will be around $20,000.

ATHLETICS TO SEE MEXICO

The greatest innovation of the training season is the Athletics' trip all the way to Mexico City. Their schedule of spring games has been greatly curtailed. The Cards also have changed camps from Bradentown, Fla., to Daytona Beach because of greater financial inducements.

Receipts of teams training on the Pacific Coast this year are expected to be larger, because the Coast League has abandoned its rule against playing major league teams.

Players will not receive their first 1937 cheques until around May 1, but they will live well, nevertheless. The Giants, for example, either pay all food cheques or give each player $4.50 a day to pay his own.

Mount View Wins Peden Cup Game

SPOKANE SKI EVENTS SET

Associated Press

Spokane, Feb. 11.—Spokane Ski Club officials reported today fifty men and nine women would compete Saturday and Sunday in the Pacific Northwest slalom and downhill championships on the steep slopes of Mt. Spokane.

The women's downhill and men's slalom events will be run off Saturday, with the women's slalom and men's spectacular downhill contests Sunday.

Four members of the United States Olympics team—Don Fraser, Darroch Crooks, Skit Smith and Grace Carter, al of the Washington Ski Club, will compete.

Hjalmar Hvam, defending titleholder in both events, and Corey Gustafson will carry the colors of the Cascade Ski Club, Portland.

BRYANT SIGNS UP

Chicago, Feb. 11 (Associated Press).—Clay Bryant, right-handed pitcher, has returned his signed contract to the Chicago Cubs. This leaves Curt Davis and Tex Carleton the only members of last year's pitching staff who have not come to terms for 1937.

British Fans Agog Over Puck Series

Canadian and English Teams May Battle For "World Championship" in London; Dynamiters Represent Dominion

Canadian Press

London, Feb. 11.—Prospect of Canada and England clashing in the final of the world hockey championship is exciting British fans. It is confidently expected a new record for attendance at a hockey match on this side of the Atlantic would be set.

Other nations in the tournament, starting February 17, agreed to the sending of the two leading contenders for the title in separate first-round groups. In the draw for quarter final groups it is likely they will be seeded again. Kimberley Dynamiters, now touring Europe, will represent Canada as last year's Allan Cup winners.

STRONG TEAM CHOSEN

Confident of adding the world title to its Olympic championship, England has selected the strongest possible team from native-born players and others who qualify by residence here. Most of those chosen were members of the Victorious English Olympic team.

All are members of the national league teams and, with one exception, they were chosen on merit. The exception is Carl Erhart, "Father of English Hockey," who was named captain. It is unlikely he will see much action.

Percy Nicklin, who coached two Moncton, N.B., teams to Allan Cup successes and guided England to the Olympic crown, has been named coach. Here are the players he has been given: Goal, Jimmy Foster of Winnipeg, and Andy Goldie of Toronto; defence, Carl Erhart, Jimmy Anderson, Paul McPhail of Montreal; forwards, Gerry Davey of Port Arthur, Archie Stinchcombe of Windsor, Ont., Alex. Archer and Norman McQuade of Winnipeg, Edgar Brenchley of Niagara Falls, Johnny Coward of Fort Frances, Ont., and Jimmy Kelly.

LEARNED IN CANADA

The English-born players are Erhart, Stinchcombe, Chappell, Archer, Coward and McQuade. With the exception of the forty-year-old Erhart, they all learned their hockey in Canada and have returned to England within the last few years.

Three matches a day will be played for the first three days of the tournament, two in the afternoon and one in the evening. Then follow three days with two matches each night and three days with one match a night.

Rink managers expect 250,000 will see the games. The tournament will be started with a great banquet at which ambassadors and ministers from fourteen nations will attend.

V.A.C. Meeting Billed Tonight

A meeting of the Victoria Athletic Club will be held this evening in The Colonist boardroom at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend as the business on hand will be of importance to all.

BAN SLAPPED ON CHAMPION

John Henry Lewis Under N.B.A. Suspension For One Year

Associated Press

Providence, R.I., Feb. 11.—Putting into effect a ruling adopted at the annual convention in Houston, Texas, last September, the National Boxing Association, through its executive secretary, Edward Foster of Providence, yesterday meted out a year's suspension to light-heavyweight champion John Henry Lewis and his manager, W. A. Greenlea of Pittsburgh.

The N.B.A. action grew out of an indefinite suspension handed Lewis and Greenlea for their alleged refusal to go through with a contract to meet Tiger Roy Williams at Washington, D.C., last October 13. Lewis broke the newest of the N.B.A. laws when he boxed Art Sykes and Al Ettore in Pennsylvania prior to the ironing out of his difficulties with the District of Columbia commission.

That latest addition to the N.B.A. code makes it mandatory for the National Association to mete out a year's suspension to any boxer who engages in a boxing contest in a non-member state or district until after such time as the earlier suspension has been lifted.

Chick Hafey To Make Comeback

Associated Press

Cincinnati, Feb. 11.—Chick Hafey, thirty-three-year-old former National Baseball League batting champion, who has been in voluntary retirement since 1935, is ready to make a comeback try with the Cincinnati Reds.

He informed General Manager Warren Giles tonight he would report to spring training camp at Tampa, Fla., and promised that if he proved himself capable of returning to the regular line-up he would sign a playing contract at the same figure he received in 1935, reputedly close to $15,000.

CANUCKS TO MEET WINGS

Big Attendance Expected When Rival Leaders Clash in Montreal Tonight

Canadian Press

It isn't at all certain that Montreal Canadiens and Detroit Red Wings will meet next month for the National Hockey League title but the possibility is great enough to draw more than usual attention to their clash in Montreal tonight.

The Habitants and world champions are leading their sections by wide-enough margins, with two-thirds of the season gone, to make them favorites for the title clash and tonight's contest may give a line on how they will perform when the league title is at stake.

Habitants should be in as fine shape tonight as they ever will be again this season. They have had a week's rest since taking a 6 to 2 beating from Boston Bruins. It may mean nothing but Wings defeated Bruins 8 to 0 this past Sunday night.

The only other game tonight brings together New York Rangers and Black Hawks in Chicago. Unbeaten in seven games, four of which have been ties, Rangers figure to hand the Hawks their nineteenth beating in thirty-four games.

Perry Cuts Vines's Lead

Houston, Texas, Feb. 11.—Fred Perry outlasted Ellsworth Vines here yesterday evening winning the seventeenth match of their tour, 11-9, 2-6, 6-2, before 3,000 fans.

Perry's victory cut Vines lead in the series to 9-8.

Lions Whip Seahawks

Associated Press

Seattle, Feb. 11.—Only three points from first place, the fast-skating Vancouver Lions moved into Portland today to meet the Pacific Coast Hockey League-leading Buckaroos.

Tonight's clash will do much to determine which sextet may take the pennant.

The Lions showed a burst of speed here last night to score a half dozen goals in the last two periods, defeating the Seahawks, 6 to 3.

An avalanche of goals in the second period gave Vancouver a 3 to 0 lead, but Seattle came back with a goal to make it 3 to 1 when the period ended.

O'Neill opened the third period with a Vancouver score, but Seattle made a brief threat when Mullen and Gilhooly scored one apiece, drawing the Hawks up within a goal of the Lions.

The last five minutes was entirely a Vancouver show, with Palm and Carse scoring.

Junior Ice Teams In Play-off Race

Saskatoon Wesleys Strongly Favored to Take Western Championship; Final This Year to Decide Rubber Between East and West

Canadian Press

Winnipeg, Feb. 11.—Western junior hockey clubs headed toward the playoffs today with the confident hope the "rubber" year of Dominion championship play would swing the trend of victory this side of the Great Lakes.

Since the O.H.A. Memorial Cup became the emblem of Canadian Junior puck supremacy in 1919, it has rested nine times in the east and nine times in the west. From Thunder Bay to the Pacific Coast, strong junior teams are preparing for the attempt to wrest the trophy from its present holders, Toronto Nationals.

Saskatoon Wesleys, western champions who lost to Nationals in the final in Toronto last spring, are rated strongly again, although completely rebuilt. Wesleys will meet the winner of the Saskatoon Nutana-Prince Albert playoffs in which Nutana has a lead of one game, won 3 to 2.

WESLEYS FAVORED

Wesleys are favored to take the Saskatchewan title, but the southern section may provide an upset. Regina Aces finished the league season last night with a one-point advantage over Wilcox Notre Dame by virtue of their 3 to 3 tie with Regina Abbotts. These three teams and Moose Jaw Canucks enter the play-offs.

A new junior champion will be crowned in Alberta for the 1936 Calgary Rangers have disbanded. No league operated in the south this year but Calgary Radios, Drumheller Rockets and Medicine Hat Tigers are expected in the playdowns.

Edmonton Athletic Club, runners-up to Toronto St. Michael's in the 1934 Canadian final, rate well in the Edmonton City loop, but their league rivals, Southsides and Rangers, retain a chance to qualify for the intersectional race.

NO VANCOUVER ENTRIES

Indications are the winners of the Vancouver Junior League, now led by New Westminster Gyros, will not seek provincial honors. If so, the British Columbia junior representatives will come again from the West Kootenay League, which sent Trail Tigers into the western semi-finals last season. Trail, Rossland and Nelson have strong teams.

Four teams dominate play in Manitoba - Winnipeg Monarchs and Portage La Prairie in the south division and St. Boniface and Brandon in the north division—and any one of these would be a championship contender. Monarchs, Dominion titleholders in 1935, are slight favorites.

In the four-team Thunder Bay circuit, Port Arthur and West Port William Maroons are fighting neck and neck for leadership.

Deal Which Brought Red Wings Smart Pivot Cinched Stanley Cup, Jack Adams Claims

BY GEORGE MAGUIRE
Canadian Press

New York, Feb. 11.—Although he struggled for years to develop a high-powered championship contender, Jack Adams, the genial gentleman from Pembroke, Ont., who spends his winters leading Detroit Red Wings into National Hockey League battles, said today the decisive stroke in perfecting the Stanley Cup championships was concluded in a matter of moments.

Adams said he thought trading Cooney Weiland, the little Owen Sounder, to Boston for Marty Barry, poker-faced pivot, two years ago was the move that changed his Red Wings —or "Redlights" as Gotham fans acclaim them—from a strong contender into a titular outfit.

The Red Wings' mentor said the Barry-Weiland deal followed a chance remark by Frank Patrick, then guiding the Bruins. "If I had Weiland," the Bruin mentor said to Adams, "I would win the Stanley Cup."

"And if I had Barry," quoth Adams, "it would be me who would win the cup."

The deal was concluded shortly after that and Detroit took the cup and the championship.

"To my way of thinking, Marty is the smartest centre in the league today and he 'made' the team. He thinks up a lot of the scoring plays we use and with wings like Larry Aurie and Herbie Lewis, it is only a matter of minutes before they have them down pat," Jack said.

SIGN SOON FOR TITLE BATTLE

Louis and Braddock to Set Chicago Bout Next Week

Associated Press

Chicago, Feb. 11.—James J. Braddock and Joe Louis will sign the papers either next Thursday or Friday for title warfare somewhere in Chicago sometime in June—provided current obstacles are overcome and no new ones arise.

Although still not certain of obtaining huge Soldier Field, upon which Joe Gould, Braddock's manager, has insisted for the fight, Joe Triner, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, and the Sporting Club of Illinois set the new signing date late yesterday.

Triner made the announcement after a telephone conference with Sheldon Clark, head of the Sporting Club. Weary of delays, Clark told Triner and Joe Foley, matchmaker for the club, to set a signing date, notify the fighters and their managers, and take care of the obstacles as quickly as possible.

SEVERAL OBSTACLES

The main obstacles are to line up Soldier Field, or convince Gould that Comiskey Park, the Chicago White Sox home, would be just as good a spot. Whether Soldier Field may be obtained will not be known until the park board has had an opportunity to mull over questions of policy.

These questions include: (1) Whether the stadium, erected and maintained by taxpayers' money, should be leased for such a spectacle; (2) whether the board should compete with a private facility such as the White Sox Club, paying taxes; (3) and if so, would it not be justified in charging 25 per cent of the gross receipts of a huge profit-seeking enterprise, rather than the usual 10 per cent?

The board was expected to make its decision by Monday or Tuesday.

To Inquire Into Money Ownership

On application of R. D. Harvey, Magistrate Henry Hall this morning ordered investigation of the right of ownership of $106 taken from Jack Manning when he was arrested here recently. Manning has been committed for trial on a charge of conspiring to defraud John Soderstrom, a prairie visitor, of $600.

Mr. Harvey asked the court to direct that the money be turned over to the Provincial Police and that ownership be investigated by the Attorney-General's department.

Following the hearing here, Manning was taken in custody to Vancouver, where he appeared there with Mike Pridel on a charge of conspiring to defraud William Hickinson of $2,000.

C.C.F. Issues Statement in Vancouver on Controversy Over Health Insurance

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in an official statement today asked the British Columbia government to call a session of the Legislature immediately to introduce such amendments to the Health Insurance Act as would make it operative at once.

"Failing such action, the C.C.F. calls upon the government to resign and hold an immediate election," the statement of the B.C. section, released by Herbert Gargrave, secretary, said.

The C.C.F. alleged that the Health Insurance Act was being jeopardized by political jockeying and added:

"The C.C.F. reaffirms its adherence to the principle of health insurance. It is determined that this measure shall not be shelved nor postponed indefinitely because of political pressure from groups which are not desirous of seeing the principle of health insurance made effective in this province."

WORK SOON ON FIRE BUDGET

Annual Report of Chief Filed With City; New Aerial Ladder Sought

Fire wardens will get to work shortly on the annual estimates of the fire department, it was learned from Ald. W. Lloyd Morgan, chairman, today.

Among other items they will give consideration to a request from Chief Alex Munroe for a new aerial ladder to replace the existing equipment reported by the chief to be in very poor condition.

The chief, in his annual report filed at the City Hall yesterday, also recommended the addition to the force of one more man to care for the inspection and prevention work of the force, and for the remodeling of the Victoria West station.

Of 479 alarms turned in during the year sixty-three came from Oak Bay, the chief reported. The total included calls to 138 chimney fires and eighty-three grass fires.

The report stated the alarm system was in good order, as was the majority of equipment other than the aerial ladder, the use of which in its present condition was limited.

Two minor accidents only were reported for 1936.

In detailing work caused by 479 fire alarms, including seventy-six fires with losses, the chief stated contents of buildings affected were insured for $312,242.91 and buildings for $2,413,333.50. Contents were valued at $2,207,142.91 and buildings at $3,701,240. Of the total fire losses of $20,581.70 during the year, $978 represented uninsured property.

There were 279 oil burner permits issued, firemen worked 416 hours and 45 minutes at fires, and 10,631 building inspections were made, the chief's report stated.

TRUSTEES PLAN CAPITAL WORK

Need For Junior High School Equipment Adds to Bill

Faced with the need for additional junior high school equipment required under the new provincial curriculum and new school annexes, there is every indication the City School Board this year will require more from civic revenue than was received in last year's budget.

This was indicated today following the preliminary meeting on estimates held by trustees yesterday evening.

The extra costs, however, will be sought as an extraordinary expenditure. On current expenses the trustees will not require as much as they did last year.

The estimated net requirement for this year, exclusive of the abovementioned capital expenditures and sinking fund and interest installment, is $389,637.

The gross expenditure is estimated at $490,637, and receipts in government grants and various fees are estimated at $101,000.

Last year the gross expenditure was $492,829. Receipts were $102,836, leaving a net expenditure of $389,993.

This year's estimate is $256 below the expenditure of last year.

NO FUND INSTALLMENT

In both instances, however, sinking fund installments and interest charges were excluded. On account of school debentures there should have been a payment of $63,981 into the sinking fund last year.

This year the scheduled payment is $45,379.

Including sinking fund installments the net figures on expenditure would be $436,824 for this year, as against $454,130 last year.

Among outstanding items on this year's budget are the following accounts: $10,500 for fuel, against an expenditure of $9,660 last year; $11,000 for sundries, compared with $12,310 last year; $12,000 for building repairs, the expenditure being $12,179 last year; $342,434 for teachers' salaries, $10,238 for last year, and $33,000 for sick, medical and dental care, against 238 for last year, and $33,000 for janitors' salaries, against $33,002 last year.

In connection with teachers' salaries the board has been notified of reductions being made on this account by the government this year. On the current year's budget this reduction will cost the city about $1,500.

The increase in the appropriation for teachers' salaries is due chiefly to scale increases for teachers in the lower salary brackets.

The mill rate for school purposes last year was 11.4938 mills.

NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie Is Elected President of Preservation Group

Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie was unanimously elected president of the Society for the Preservation of Native Plants of British Columbia at the annual meeting in the City Hall yesterday evening.

Other officers of the society are as follows:

Vice-president, Miss Lottie Bowron; secretary, Miss Janet Bell; treasurer, Alderman John A. Worthington.

Honorary president, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor; honorary vice-presidents, Hon. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., Rev. Robert Connell, M.P.P., R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., Dr. S. J. Willis, Deputy Minister of Education, J. B. Clearihue, K.C., and Mrs. Hedben Gillespie; immediate past president, F. B. Pemberton.

Executive: Alderman J. D. Hunter, P. R. Leighton, D. D. McTavish, C. C. Pemberton, A. R. Sherwood, Nigel Morgan and John Grant.

Sanctuary committee: Mrs. B. Wilson, Mrs. Lampman and Lionel E. Taylor.

Publicity committee: Miss Ellen Hart, Miss Janet Bell, Miss Hazel King, Nigel Morgan and John Grant.

Highways protection committee: C. H. French, D. D. McTavish and Alderman James Adam

Wild flower protection committee: Miss Lottie Bowron, Mrs. C. Swayne, Mrs. A. V. Villiers and H. E. Newton.

Natural history advisory committee: C. C. Pemberton, W. A. Newcombe and W. H. Warren.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

"Our ultimate object should be the preservation of all wild life," Mrs. MacKenzie declared in accepting the presidency of the society. The picking of flowers was by no means the only reason for native plants disappearing, she said. Agriculture, logging and fire played their parts.

"While we will not cease to work for protection we must take a wider view," said Mrs. MacKenzie. She suggested that municipalities should set aside parks for wild flowers where picking would be prohibited. She pointed to the laws in the states of Washington and Oregon which protected the flowers growing along the highways and declared that similar laws should be considered here.

The accomplishments of the society during the last year were listed as follows: The conservation of a belt of woodland through the co-operation of the city parks board; efforts to protect highways through contact with the Provincial Department of Agriculture; efforts to conserve British Columbia forests in which the society had aided the chief forester, E. C. Manning, and more intensive educational work through the Department of Education in British Columbia schools.

A landscape division of the Department of Agriculture to preserve landmarks, and a tree warden to act as a police officer, particularly during the pre-Christmas season, when many evergreens were despoiled, were suggested as objectives toward which the society might work.

The society accepted an offer by Rev. E. O. Robothan of two pounds of lily seed for sowing in parks where they would be protected from vandals. A suggestion from Hubert Lethaby, secretary of the Real Estate Board, that Beacon Hill Park be an arboretum for native plants of the whole province was filed.

J. W. Gibson said John Davidson, head of the Natural History Association in Vancouver, had offered complete co-operation in the work the society was doing.

Senator G. H. Barnard briefly congratulated the society on its work and a letter from the Lieutenant-Governor conveying best wishes was read to the meeting.

SCHEME FOR INDIGENTS

A plan to provide for the medical treatment of indigents, on a larger basis than at present was reported today as a means of meeting doctors' objections to the proposed British Columbia health insurance scheme.

At tomorrow's meeting of the provincial cabinet it is expected the proposals will be presented.

On what basis the government would provide for indigents under this scheme could not be learned, but it was indicated that anything costing the treasury more money would have little chance of success.

At the present time, the government and municipalities work together in paying a contribution toward the cost of medical care for relief patients. Doctors have asserted one of their main objections to the health insurance scheme is that it makes no provision for indigent people, the class which most requires provision.

Hollywood Liked Exotic Dancers

"As finished a dance rendition as we have yet witnessed here or anywhere else" wrote Raymond Mitchell, well-known critic, in The Hollywood Citizen-News, following the dance recital of Joseph Von Hahn and Marta De Negre, in that city where many of the great dancers of the world foregather.

"In Debussy's 'laire de Lune'," wrote Mitchell, "they moved with the consumate ease and grace of swans. In character moods they were charming and in moods of tragedy, such as 'Two Souls,' by Wilckens, they were daring, modern and held the attention of the audience, as if it were a drama. Von Hahn's 'Fire Dance' and 'Shackles' met with ovations."

All these numbers are included in their programme to be given in this city, Friday and Saturday evenings, with a Saturday matinee, at the Empire Theatre.

"The Big Game" At the Oak Bay

With all the color, action and excitement typical of college football and its background, "The Big Game," R.K.O. Radio's gridiron story of Francis Wallace opened today at the Oak Bay Theatre with a notable roster of cinema favorites, along with a cast of all-American gridiron gladiators to provide vivid realism.

Concerning the gridiron career of a coal miner's son attending college under the sponsorship of a sportsman who makes a fortune by backing the lad's sensational playing, the story is said to be replete with dramatic action, comedy and romance.

FINE DRAMA AT THE PLAZA

"Fury" Opened Today, Starring Spencer Tracy

Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy are the brilliant co-stars of "Fury," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which opened at the Plaza Theatre today.

The narrative, based on an original story by Norman Krasna, has to do with the tragic circumstances that separate two young lovers on the eve of their marriage. Tracy, as the man, is arrested as a kidnap suspect and apparently burned to death by a furious mob that storms and fires the prison in which he is held.

His life wrecked, and his mind twisted by the horror he has been through, he goes into hiding and contrives to have twenty-two of the mobsters convicted of his murder!

As a hard-hitting indictment of a a national shame, "Fury" stands out as one of the fine pictures of the year, for its power lies in its altogether objective approach to the subject of mass lawlessness.

The second feature is "The Murder of Dr. Harrigan," with Mary Astor and Ricardo Cortez.

Where To Go Tonight
As Advertised

ATLAS — Paul Robeson in "The Song of Freedom."
CAPITOL — Gary Cooper in "The Plainsman."
DOMINION — Deanna Durbin in "Three Smart Girls."
OAK BAY—"The Big Game," starring June Travis.
PLAZA—Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy in "Fury."

Stage Success Opens Tomorrow

Before talking pictures were started it was a simple matter to film a successful stage play. The director, figuratively speaking, went into the theatre, put the camera in front of the footlights, raised the curtain and let it stay up while he photographed the play.

It is a different matter these days. A director takes the play off the stage and makes a motion picture out of it, meanwhile retaining the spirit of the piece.

That is what Director Mervyn LeRoy did with "Three Men on a Horse," a First National picture opening at the Atlas Theatre tomorrow.

James Gleason and ZaSu Pitts will be starred in "The Pot Thickens," the second picture.

Bing Crosby In Newest Picture

Bing Crosby's latest picture, Columbia's "Pennies from Heaven," will open tomorrow at the Dominion Theatre. The cast includes Madge Evans, Edith Fellows, Donald Meek and Louis Armstrong.

Crosby's latest picture was "Rhythm on the Range," in which he scored a hit. Madge Evans was last seen in "Piccadilly Jim," and little Edith Edith Fellows, thirteen-year-old starlet, will be remembered for her performances in "She Married Her Boss" and "And So They Were Married" and other films. Armstrong's celebrated swing band appears with him in "Pennies from Heaven."

"The Man Who Lived Twice," with Ralph Bellamy and Peggy Russell will be the second picture on the programme.

Winnipeg, Feb. 11.—A $6,000,000 relief works programme for Winnipeg has been given approval of the city council upon the recommendation of the civic relief works committee. It includes erection of a new $1,500,000 city hall.

Capitol Books Stage Troupe

Like a circus, the Weaver Brothers and Elviry company is always a big event in the entertainment life of the community whenever that famous troupe of backwoods folk comes to town. Abner, Cicero and Elviry, together with their kinfolk from the Ozarks will come to the Capitol Theatre for two days starting tomorrow.

The Weavers always furnish good, clean fun. They have become an institution—the original exponents of typical American rural humor which

Strike Settlement Bolsters Prices on Wall St. Market

Associated Press

New York, Feb. 11.—Buying waves, engendered by the declaration of peace in the General Motors conflict, swept over the stock market today and lifted numerous issues to new post-depression tops with gains of one to around four points.

The list backed up after the initial sprint, but a last-minute upsurge of U.S. Steel brought in strong support for other lagging stocks. The major steel favorite crossed 109½ for its best figure in about six years.

There were many losers, however, at the close. The trading pace quickened just before the finish. Transfers were around 3,000,000 shares.

General Motors stock provided the morning sensation when it required a governor of the exchange to open the issue. After a wait of six minutes a 10,000-share block of "GM" changed hands at 70, up 2½ points. It slipped back a little in subsequent trades.

Rails, indifferent for a while, came up on the final lap. Utilities were hesitant, as were coppers and oils.

Besides "big steel," demand was centred on Bethlehem, Crucible, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Maacy, Boeing, American Telephone, Northern Pacific and Pressed Steel Car.

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—Oil stocks took on a generally better tone again during morning dealings on Vancouver Stock Exchange today, but shared another session of bullish trading with a number of the mining issues.

The whole market was strong, and stocks in all sections of the board closed with fresh gains. Trading continued at near record speed, and with increased activity in a number of the penny stocks, indicated the total sales volume for the day would again pass the 2,000,000-share mark.

Total board transactions during the early session amounted to 1,694,124 shares.

Dalhousie proved a leader of the oils, and scored a jump of 50 cents in active trading to close at $3.50. Okalta advanced 5 cents at $3.50, while mercury closed 3 cents higher at 70.

C. and E., however, failed to respond to better tone, closing down 30 cents at $5.59. A number of the medium priced issues made small advances, among which were Anaconda and United Oil with 1-cent gains.

Profit-taking Dips Prices at Winnipeg

Canadian Press

Winnipeg, Feb. 11.—A pre-closing rush to sell sent wheat prices skidding on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today as profit-takers took advantage of earlier sharp gains. The close, at the session's low points, was ½ to ⅝ cent lower, May $1.28, July $1.22⅝ and October $1.12⅛.

A burst of buying at the start that sent values abruptly 1½ cents higher highlighted the session. Profit-taking on the advance sent prices back to the previous closing levels and thereafter irregular fluctuations at fractionally higher levels was the rule.

Export sales totalled 500,000 bushels. Prices at Liverpool closed ⅛ to ¼d higher, late profit-taking paring earlier advances. Chicago was irregular while Buenos Aires at noon was up 1¼ cents.

Cash grains continued dull and unchanged. Coarse grains prices followed the trend of wheat in routine trading.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Pre-holiday profit-taking distinguished late dealings in wheat today and at times forced price setbacks of more than 1½ cents from the day's top.

Caution was displayed by Chicago wheat traders as American Exchanges will be closed tomorrow, while Winnipeg and Liverpool will be open as usual. Some of the selling of wheat futures here was regarded as spreading against other markets.

At the close, wheat was ⅛ to ½ under yesterday's finish, May 135⅜ to 135½, July 117⅛ to 117¼, corn ¼ to ¾ down, May 109 to 109⅛, July 103½ to 103⅝, oats ¼ to ⅜ off, and provisions unchanged to 15 cents advance.

Ex-king and Sister Inspect Old Folios

Associated Press

Vienna, Feb. 11.—The Duke of Windsor, his sister, the Princess Royal, and her husband, the Earl of Harewood, did a little Shakespearean research today in the Austrian National Library.

They examined the First and Fourth Folios, dated 1623 and 1685, which the Duke said were the envy of the British Museum.

Later they inspected another Shakespearean collection in the downtown Hapsburg palace.

FORESEE REICH PACT DEMANDS

French Observers Expect Attempt to Cut Down Franco-Soviet Agreement

Canadian Press from Havas

Paris, Feb. 11.—Germany will demand "sterilization" of the Franco-Soviet mutual assistance pact as the price of her co-operation in the pacification of Europe, Pertinax predicted in the Echo de Paris today.

Pertinax's comment was in connection with the interview between Joachim von Ribbentrop, German ambassador in London, and Viscount Halifax, Acting British Foreign Secretary, scheduled to take place in London today.

Diplomatic attention here centred on that discussion.

The main question in Paris was: "Will Ribbentrop demand the return of German colonies?"

Pertinax said Von Ribbentrop would avoid bringing up the colonial question at this time and would restrict himself to discussing the question of Germany's participation in a "new Locarno," provided France would agree to modify her alliance with Soviet Russia.

POSSIBLE AGGRESSORS

Modifications in the Franco-Soviet agreement which Germany wants are generally outlined as follows:

1. Change in the protocol attached to the pact to make it plain that Germany is not considered as the only possible eventual aggressor;

2. Declarations by the Russian and French Governments that they will not be the sole judges of the situation in case the League of Nations cannot agree on naming an aggressor, and that the question will then be placed before an international commission in which France, Britain, Germany, Italy and Belgium will participate.

Equal Trade Chances Urged

Sir H. Skinner, London, Speaks of New Canadian-British Pact

Canadian Press

London, Feb. 11.—Equality of opportunity for the industries of both countries should be the aim of all those interested in the maintenance and development of Anglo-Canadian trade, Sir Hewitt Skinner declared in his presidential address today at the annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain.

"It is anticipated that another Canada-United Kingdom trade agreement will shortly be announced," Sir Hewitt said. "The mutual desire for renewal of the former agreement on a revised basis is recognition of its value to the trade of both countries and the necessity of its consolidation and further expansion."

He invited the industrial leaders of the United Kingdom to turn their eyes toward the Empire and consider if it was not possible to ensure greater prosperity among the British peoples.

"It is our paramount duty," Sir Hewitt concluded, "to devise means whereby we may apply ourselves to the great task of Empire consolidation, of which Anglo-Canadian trade is no small part."

RULES FOR CHINESE VANCOUVER CAFES

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—Chinese restaurant operators in Vancouver will not be permitted to employ any additional white waitresses during the next six months, it was announced yesterday following a conference between Mayor G. C. Miller, Chief Constable W. W. Foster and Alderman H. D. Wilson.

Police recently attempted to have white waitresses discharged from Oriental cafes, but a delegation of the waitresses complained, stating they would be unable to obtain other employment if dismissed from their present positions.

The dismissal order was then cancelled by the chief of police.

If any Chinese cafe operators violate the new order their business licenses will be cancelled, yesterday's announcement said.

RAILWAY RATE MOVE STUDIED

C.N.R. Favors New Transport Bill Clause Permitting Special Tariffs

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Support for the provision in the Transport Bill by which traders and either of the railways may agree on special freight charges, subject to approval of the proposed new Board of Transport Commissioners, was voiced before the Senate committee today on behalf of the Canadian National Railways.

The railway system was represented by Bernard Allen of its bureau of economics, Montreal.

"The new provision is the same as the one now in operation by legislation in England," Mr. Allen told the committee. The purpose of allowing these agreed charges was "to meet highway competition," the C.N.R. official said.

Where a contract was made between either the C.P.R. or the C.N.R. with any trader for an agreed rate as applied to one or more products, it would have to be filed with the Transport Board, Mr. Allen said.

"I am afraid the board is going to be swamped," Senator J. A. Calder, Conservative, Saskatchewan, remarked.

BRITISH PRACTICE

The practice in Britain was that these agreed rates were not only filed with a tribunal before its approval, but "they were posted at the station of origin of the traffic and the station of destination of the traffic," Mr. Allen stated.

In England these contracts for agreed rates could be made for tariffs 40 per cent below the standard rates.

COUNTRYWIDE

F. C. S. Evans, C.P.R. transport service representative, declared the provision would be of national assistance in meeting highway and bus competition.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, stated the proposal did not present any difficulties of administration. The provision was working satisfactorily in the Mother Country.

Guard Against Budget Leaks

British Government Takes Precautionary Steps as Insurance Moves Noted

Associated Press

London, Feb. 11.—Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons today the "usual precautionary steps" would be taken to prevent leakage of information on Britain's next budget.

His statement replied to a question from Will Thorne, Labor, after reports of increasing amounts of insurance being written by Lloyds against prospective loss through budgetry changes.

"The speculation (in business circles) is not necessarily based on information — whether obtained by leakage or otherwise," Mr. Chamberlain declared.

"But the usual precautionary steps will, of course, be taken in connection with the next budget."

An investigation last year of the writing of heavy insurance before budget day led to the resignation of Colonial Secretary J. H. Thomas, who denied, however, that he had given away any budget secrets.

Brokers said the bulk of a moderate volume of underwriting now is against an increase in the income tax.

GUNMEN HUNTED IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—Police today were searching for two men who last night held up Mrs. C. Buscombe and robbed her of $2 and jewelry when she found them in her home.

On her arrival home Mrs. Buscombe found the rear door of her house open and on investigating met the men in an upstairs hall. One of the men threatened her with a revolver.

As the leopard crept closer, Kali Bwana saw a figure emerge suddenly from the jungle—a giant white man, naked except for a loincloth. He ran toward the beast, which did not see him, for its eyes were on the girl. To her horror Kali Bwana saw that the man was unarmed.

The leopard raised its body slightly from the ground. It set its hind feet beneath it. It was about to start the swift rush that would end in death for her. Then the man launched himself through the air straight for the back of the grim beast. The girl shuddered.

Kali Bwana's impulse was to close her eyes to shut out the horrible scene she knew must ensue as the ferocious leopard turned and tore its rash antagonist to ribbons. There was a swift intermingling of spotted hide and bronzed skin, of legs and arms, teeth and talons.

Above all rose the hideous growls of the blood-mad belligerents. And the growls of the man were as savage as those of the beast. Kali Bwana anticipated only one possible climax to that elemental conflict of the jungle—death for the man, then for her!

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—We have been married a very short time and the question of going about a bit and keeping up our old friendships has arisen between us. My husband thinks that we should be all and all to each other. Never want any outside company and spend all of our evenings at home. He has dropped all his acquaintances, never wants to stir from his own fireside and says that if I really love him I wouldn't ever want any society but his. I do love him, but I am of a sociable nature. I like good times and I think that for complete happiness we have to have outside interests and friends regardless of how much we love each other. Which one of us is right?

PUZZLED WIFE.

Answer—You are, absolutely! No young couple can make a greater mistake than by turning hermits at the beginning of their married life. Friends and outside interests are the salt that gives savor to life after marriage, just as it did before marriage, and, if you leave them out, you will soon find that domesticity is not your dish, as the English say.

The theory that a husband and wife should be all in all to each other, that they need no society other than their own, and should confine all their interests to the four walls of their home, is the most misleading propaganda that was ever preached. It has led many misguided youngsters who embraced it to the divorce courts. Because no two people in the world who are thrown solely upon each other for companionship can keep from boring each other to death or from quarreling just to put a little pep into their conversation.

All of the records of people marooned on desert islands or in snow-blocked cabins in the mountains tell of how they came to hate each other. You will recall that the reason Admiral Byrd gave for going off alone to his igloo at the South Pole was because he knew no two men could spend months alone together without getting unbearably on each other's nerves.

The same thing happens in home life. The husband and wife who cut themselves from other companionship, who never step out of an evening, who have no friends who ever drop in for a game of cards, or a chat, soon find that they have talked out, and that they are spending their evenings sitting up in a silence that is as thick and uninspiring as pea soup. They have told each other every thing they know, and heard all of each other's jokes a thousand times. Between yawns they are thinking that if they had known that marriage was going to be as dull and tiresome as this, wild horses could not have dragged them to the altar.

Furthermore, our friends, in addition to making life more entertaining and amusing for us, are an asset that no young couple can afford to throw away. Just as many good business deals are put across dinner tables as are over office desks. Half of us go to this doctor when we are sick, or that lawyer when we need one, not because he is superior to some other doctor or lawyer, but because he belongs to some club we do, or we met him at the Jenkins party and took a fancy to him, or because our wife likes his wife. Perhaps if a man had the financial genius of a Morgan or a Rockefeller he might get somewhere, even if he had no social contacts and was a human clam, but most of us need to sell ourselves to as many people as possible so that they will know we are alive, and to have plenty of friends plugging our game.

A man is simply silly and doesn't know what is good for him when he tries to keep his wife shut up in the house all the time and resents her belonging to clubs and going places. All he achieves, if he succeeds in his plan, is to make her as stupid and as uninteresting as he is himself, and to deprive himself of a companion who has got something to talk about besides the way the butcher's meat has gone up and the baby having the sniffles.

Of course, there should be moderation in all things. A young married couple should no more be perpetual gadders than they should be stick-in-the-muds, but once or twice a week they should put on their glad rags and step out to get a little fresh air and a few new ideas.

* * * * * *

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a young man of twenty-two. In my sophomore year at college I became infatuated with a girl and against the wishes of both families we were married. I left college and went to work, but I only earned $15 a week. This does not satisfy my wife's extravagant taste, and I find myself the object of her scorn and biting sarcasm. Every day I am reminded of the lovely home she left to marry me. Now, I have fallen in love with a young stenographer and realize she is the only one I ever really loved. If I should divorce my wife and marry her, she will be willing to go on working until I am promoted. What shall I do? Please help a boy who married in his extreme youth.

ON THE SPOT.

And I'll say it is a hot spot, as marriage nearly always is for boys and girls who mistake a physical attraction for an undying love and who get married before they have the price of a wedding ring.

When the Government gets through putting across its present housing programme, I hope it will see its way to erecting in every community some nice padded cells in which all adolescents who think they are in love and are contemplating committing suicide or marriages can be locked up until they get over it, and return to sanity, and are capable of figuring on how a boy who can't support himself can support a family. And how a lad who is so unstable that everything about him is changing every day, even his voice, can even expect to stay permanently in love with the same girl.

To say nothing of a girl who doesn't know her own mind, if any, knowing what sort of a husband she wants. Prevention is the only remedy for such crimes as too youthful marriages. After they have once been committed, they are as fatal as murder. Really the G-men are the only ones who can handle the situation, and I, for one, vote to put Mr. Hoover in charge of the matrimonial madhouse.

Weapons of War

IV—PISTOLS AND REVOLVERS

A few hundred years ago, a French soldier wrote about gunpowder, and here is the translation of his words:

Old-time two - barreled pistol above, and modern automatic being loaded below.

"I do not see how it could have been the will of Providence for this weapon to be invented. I, myself, still bear the marks it has left, and even now they cause me to suffer much weakness. I have seen brave men killed with it, and they were struck down by those horrible bullets fired by cowardly knaves. Those knaves would never have dared to meet true soldiers face-to-face and hand-to-hand. All this is a trick of Satan to make human beings kill one another."

Whether or not gunpowder was "a trick of Satan," it came into wider and wider use. Cannon and smaller guns of many kinds were made for the work of death.

About 300 years ago an Italian made a very short gun which could be held in one hand while fired. The Italian lived in the town named Pistoia, and the weapon later came to be called a "pistol."

The first pistols had only a single barrel, and they had to be loaded over again each time a shot was fired. Later pistols had two barrels, sometimes side by side, sometimes one over the other.

After the double-barreled pistol came others with several barrels, often as many as seven or eight. These were "revolvers" of a sort. The barrels kept turning, or revolving, as shots were fired. As time went on, it was found that the weapon did not need to have more than one barrel. A bullet-holder was made to revolve, and several shots could be fire quickly through the same barrel.

About a half a century ago, an "automatic" pistol was invented. This type of weapon fires shots in a great hurry. It is used for warfare by most modern armies, but a few nations still arm their men with revolvers.

The old-time dueling pistol was usually a single-barreled, single-shot weapon. Many men had the foolish idea they could "save their honor" by fighting duels. Some times a duel ended in an amusing way. When a certain Duke of York fought Colonel Lennox, back in the year 1789, neither one was hurt by a bullet but one of the curls in the duke's wig was shot off!

Two World Trips In Small Vessel

Capt. Harry Pidgeon Has Had Exciting Experiences in Two Lone Voyages Around the World

Canadian Press

Port of Spain, Trinidad, Feb. 11.—A hermit of the sea, Capt. Harry Pidgeon sailed his thirty-four-foot yawl into Port of Spain for the second time in twelve years—on his second lone round-the-world voyage.

Captain Pidgeon has come back to Trinidad after completing nearly 40,000 miles of his second trip, which started back in August of 1934. On his first voyage, he started in 1921 and finished in 1925.

The trim yacht Islander was a tribute to Captain Pidgeon's knowledge of the sea and sailing vessels. He built the five-ton vessel himself in a year and a half.

Sailing from Los Angeles, Captain Pidgeon took his niece, Miss Evelyn Smith, and stenographer, Miss Edith King, with him, dropping them off at Honolulu.

AT NEW GUINEA

After leaving his companions behind, the wandering waif set his course for New Guinea and brought the Islander into port there after sailing for sixty-seven days without any sight of land.

The meandering mariner encountered several incidents which broke into the even sailing of his voyage. Landing on an island in the Hebrides, he was greeted by a group of naked savages who had a few days before eaten the missionary there.

He stopped off at Christmas Island, a number of islands in the Torres Strait, Cocos and Keeling Island. He also had a narrow escape in New Guinea when his boat went on the reefs while he was ashore. He was able to salvage, however, and continued on his way across the Indian Ocean, where he experienced terrible weather en route to Durban, South Africa.

HAD HIS SLEEP

Captain Pidgeon said he had no difficulty getting his regular sleep. He said he had learned to shorten sail and get it balanced so the yacht would sail on any course while he rested.

"If she did run off the course a bit, what of it?" he inquired. "I became acquainted with the Islander, for ships, like men, have a personality of their own.

"From Durban, I left for Capetown, where I spent about six weeks delivering lectures and being entertained. From that port I sailed direct to Trinidad and the only island I touched was that of St. Helena."

Captain Pidegon received the Olympic Diploma eight years ago. There were only three diplomas given out that year, the other two being awarded to Charles Lindbergh and Alain Gerbault, who also sailed around the world.

The solitary seaman, declaring he was getting old and becoming more fond of companions, said he would never sail round the world again.

"Many men and women want to join me, but they don't know what it means, and perhaps they might not suit me," he explained simply.

President of Shipping Federation of Canada Tells of Encouraging Year

Canadian Press

Montreal, Feb. 11.—Stable and encouraging conditions returned to shipping in Canadian services during 1936, W. R. Eakin, president of the Shipping Federation of Canada, told members of the body at the annual meeting here yesterday. The trend toward stability was evident throughout the shipping world, he said.

New commercial trade agreements between Canada and other sections of the Empire were largely responsible for the increase in ocean traffic, according to Mr. Eakin.

"They proved to be a potent factor within the Empire and providing cargoes for merchant ships engaged in Canadian services," he said.

When these treaties were revised, the president said, he hoped "their value to Canada as well as other parts of the Empire will be so apparent that any changes will be directed to even greater exchange of commodities between this country and other parts of the British Commonwealth."

Increased tonnage of export grain cargoes marked 1936, said Mr. Eakin. Further increase in general cargo tonnage for 1937 was predicted by the president.

Twenty-six Men of Ss. Cottoneva Reach Oregon Shore After Mishap

Associated Press

Port Orford, Ore., Feb. 11.—Storms sweeping in suddenly from the Pacific added the steamer Cottoneva to their long list of victims today, but staunch lines and breeches buoy cheated them of human prey.

All twenty-six members of the crew were brought safely ashore high over the tumultous waves last night when little chance remained of the 190-foot ship freeing itself from the rocky trap into which it was swept by winds reaching a velocity of seventy-five miles an hour.

Lines were fastened to the ship, which had surged into the sand and attempted to put out to sea without the pounding sufficiently to permit boarding, an attempt to salvage personal belongings was to be made today.

The Cottoneva, loaded with 150,000 feet of lumber yesterday morning, attempted to put out to sea withing taking the remainder of an 800,000-foot cargo aboard when reports of a new storm were received, but so suddenly did the winds hit that the vessel was swept shoreward a few hundred yards south of the dock.

Coastguardsmen who effected the rescue said the craft's hull was badly damaged and that it apparently was a total loss.

The Cottoneva, of 1113 gross tons register, was built at St. Helens, Ore., in 1917. It was sold last week to Charles R. Ayres, San Francisco.

New Airliners For Dominions

London, Feb. 11.—The government has assisted in development of a maximum-sized British airliner suitable for use in the Dominions, and is considering further assistance, Sir Philip Sassoon, Undersecretary of State for Air, said in the House of Commons yesterday.

In reply to a question he said, however, the problem was primarily one to be solved by private industry.

The Air Ministry ordered the first two models produced of the new De Haviland 91, Sir Philip said. O. E. Simmons, Conservative, said the Dominions required a considerable number of airliners and that, in the absence of a suitable British type, American aircraft were being purchased.

"I think that the type which I have mentioned," Sir Philip said, "and which is under consideration, will prove suitable for the purpose."

High School Boys Will Stay at Youth Hostels in Germany During Tour

The boys will travel under the leadership of masters selected by the Overseas Education League, and their itinerary, which will last two months, will include, in addition to the week's visit to Germany, a very comprehensive tour of the British Isles.

The tour will be limited to boys over fourteen and under nineteen, for whom visits to British industrial establishments and a summer school of English have been arranged. Sailing from Quebec by the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Australia July 2, the party will reach Southhampton a week later and proceed direct to London for a twelve-day stay.

Departure for Germany will be made July 21, and the German tour will last a week. Accommodation in the youth hotels has been plannd to enable the Canadian and German boys to become acquainted. Swimming meets have been arranged.

From July 29 to August 7 Eastbourne will be headquarters. Schools will be used as billets, and seabathing, cricket and other sports with British boys will be part of the programme. Birmingham will be reached via Oxford August 7 and will be headquarters for a week, during which time such factories as the Austin Motor Works and Cadbury's are to be inspected. From this point, Stratford-on-Avon, its memorial theatre and Warwick Castle form focal points of a local itinerary.

Four days each are planned for Keswick and the Lake Country and Edinburgh. Both of these points will be headquarters for local exploration.

From Edinburgh the Canadian boys will leave for Glasgow by way of the Trossachs, embarking at the Clyde port aboard the liner Duchess of York. Montreal will be reached August 28

TOURISTS IN TRAILERS MEET

One Party, After Arrival Here From Australia, Motored to Florida

Associated Press

Sarasota, Fla., Feb. 11.—In a mobile city of approximately 3,000 inhabitants, the tin can tourists of the world opened their annual convention this week with a party from Australia occupying the spotlight for long distance travel.

Approximately 1,500 automobile trailers, many of them as elaborately equipped as a modern efficient apartment, were gathered in the municipal park, with more arrivals swelling the gathering hourly.

The Australians were from Sydney. In the party were James Fitzpatrick, his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Robertson, and their six-year-old son, Bruce.

"Last year we read about these tin-canners," Fitzpatrick said, "and we said, 'aye, that's the life for us.' So we took passage from Sydney to Victoria. That's 7,500 miles. We were a little strange in the north country, so we took a train down to San Francisco.

"'How far is it to Sarasota?'" he asked the man.

"'And where is Sarasota?' he replied.

"'In Florida, ye noggin,' I told him. And then he said, 'Oh, tincanners,' and then I knew we were on the right road.

"So we bought an automobile and a house that you hitched behind it. Two hundred pounds ($1,000) it cost us. The man showed us the way over the mountains, and after three weeks, here we are."

They will go to New York from here, where they will embark for London to attend the coronation in May.

"We thought it would be Edward we'd be seeing crowned," Fitzpatrick said, "but since he won't be there, I guess his brother will do as well."

B.C. Lumber Men Name Officers

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Feb. 11.—J. G. Robson, New Westminster, yesterday succeeded J. H. McDonald, also of New Westminster, as president of the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association.

H. J. Machin and A. R. Macfarlane, both of Vancouver, have been named first and second vice-presidents, respectively.

Directors are J. P. Cameron, C. J. Culter, Bruce M. Farris, R. B. Cherry, G. R. Hackett and F. R. Pendleton.

In addressing the annual meeting of the association here yesterday McDonald said the province's foreign export trade had reached an all-time high record last year.

He attributed this increase and a subsequent increase in production to tariff preferences, less labor disruption, subsidized freighting services and efforts of lumbermen to create new foreign markets and increase markets already established.
